Dulles Feels Defense Treaty With Chiang Will Stem Reds

Pinay Delays Appearance At Assembly

PARIS, Feb. 7 (AP)—Former Premier Antoine Pinay went through a series of exploratory talks today in his effort to patch together a new French Cabinet. He was still at least a day away from the crucial make-or-break stage of the negotiations.

Pinay said tonight he hopes to go before the National Assembly Friday to ask for approval. By that time he will have to have a lineup of Cabinet ministers and promises of support from about 300 deputies if he is to head up this country's 21st Cabinet since liberation in 1944. The original plan was for a Thursday appearance before the Assembly, but it was put off.

Most of today's activities were centered on protocol calls on the presidents of the chambers of Parliament. Pinay also conferred with outgoing Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

Pinay delayed plans to start the talks with political leaders from the Assembly tonight, and devoted his time to meetings with parliamentary friends. After sessions with French administrators from North Africa tomorrow, he will start receiving the heads of the various parties of the National Assembly.

After Pinay has outlined his plans to the heads of the parties, in their individual calls, the political leaders will go back to their groups. Each party then can make its decision, or pose conditions, which the aspirant premier may accept or reject. These complicated negotiations, which cannot be completed before tomorrow, will determine whether Pinay can expect enough backing to go before the Assembly.

As of now, Pinay can count on only about 135 votes. All those come from his own party, the independent Republicans, Peasants, and Social and Republican Action group. These three parties are loosely allied in a conservative front movement.

The Popular Republican Movement, the followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the Radical Socialists were reported holding back. Pinay will need votes from substantial portions of each to win.

Dems Refuse To Take Over Senate Control

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7 (AP)—Democrats could conceivably have taken control of the Senate tonight but refused to take political advantage of misfortunes of Republicans.

The illness of Sen. Henry J. Propert (R-Montgomery) coming on top of the injury of Sen. John T. Van Sant (R-Lehigh) placed both Republicans and Democrats on an equal footing with 24 votes each.

Some parliamentary experts figured that Democrats, by letting Democratic Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman break a tie, could have upset the Republican organization of the Senate. He may break a tie on a matter of procedure but not in voting on a bill on passage.

But Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, made it clear, with emphasis on his words, that: "We Democrats in the Senate have no intention of disrupting the organization of the Senate. Acts of God such as these illnesses and accidents are, will not be used by the Democrats in the Senate to gain political ends."

Sen. Propert suffered a possible heart attack in the Senate Appropriations Committee. He may be back in the Senate next week but Van Sant is expected to be absent for weeks.

Letter Carrier Show Gratitude

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 7 (AP)—Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), is going to get a postal card he can't stick in his pocket.

Letter carriers at the parkway station here are sending him a card urging his support of a bill which would grant postal employees a 10 per cent wage hike.

It is 4 1/2 feet in size, weighs 27 pounds and will require $12.84 in postage to send to Washington.

Appeals To Germans

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 7 (AP)—The AFL today appealed to Germany's influential labor unions to switch their opposition to support for proposed German rearmament.

Wisconsin Men Invent Spray To Keep Feet Warm

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Feb. 7 (AP)—Two Wisconsin men announced today that they are going into business selling people hotfoots.

W. G. Glascoff Jr., Waupun, Wis., and Stanley Herlin, Ripon, Wis., claim that they have invented a liquid spray that keeps feet warm. They say that their product, called, suitably enough, "Hotfoot," is odorless, colorless, completely harmless to shoes, and will keep the feet warm for 18 hours.

The original research was done, Glascoff said, by German scientists during World War II, but that four more years of research had to be done before the product was perfected.

Wilson Urges Higher Pay For Military

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson said today the inability of the armed services to keep more trained, capable men in uniform poses a grave and growing threat to U.S. military efficiency.

"We have been impressed for some time with the seriousness of the personnel problems in the armed forces, but lately we have seen an already critical situation get worse," Wilson told a House Armed Services subcommittee.

Wilson and other top Pentagon officials appeared before the subcommittee, headed by Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.), to support the administration's proposal for higher pay and allowances for career service personnel.

Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said the services will need a core of highly skilled young officers as long as the present "uneasy tensions" in the world exist.

Wilson said the time has come to recognize that "the present pay scales for military service are not sufficient for recognition for the high standards of individual performance which military service demands to attract and retain the leadership and levels of skill and experience that are so vital to our modern military forces."

Another witness, Secretary of the Navy Thomas, told the subcommittee:

"It is alarming to note that the Navy over-all reenlistment rate has fallen from 24 per cent in fiscal 1954 to only 9 per cent in the first quarter of fiscal 1955. Fiscal 1955 began last July 1."

Bangor Man Hit By Car

BANGOR — Leonard Petrucelli, 52, of 56 N. First St., Bangor, was struck and knocked down by a car while crossing the street in front of Town Hall near his home last night at 8:10. He suffered cuts and bruises about the face, hands and legs.

Thomas Dorsey, of 345 Miller St., Bangor, operator of the car, rushed the injured man to the office of Dr. Nicholas Romano for treatment immediately following the accident.

Investigating officer Walter Heard said Dorsey blamed the blinding lights of a parked car for the accident. He said he was blinded temporarily and applied his brakes but did not see Petrucelli crossing the street.

Airline Pilots, Motorists Swerve To 'Avoid' Meteor

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 7 (AP)—A big meteor, flaming so brightly that it seemed to glow with fire, was reported to have flashed across south Florida tonight.

The flashing light was spotted by hundreds of persons, from central Florida to Cuba. Two airplanes over the Atlantic between Miami and Nassau and a ship near Cuba radioed that they had seen it.

Capt. Francis Black, a pilot for Eastern Air Lines, tried to fly his plane over it.

"I thought it was coming in the window of my plane," he reported.

"I was over Fort Pierce, Fla., at the time on a trip from Detroit. It looked like a ball of fire 10 or 15 feet in diameter."

"I took my plane up about 1,000 feet to keep from getting hit but I felt a little foolish when I got to

GOP Senate Okays Leader Appointments

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7 (AP)—The Republican-led Senate, after three weeks of controversy, approved unanimously Gov. George M. Leader's appointments to six top jobs tonight.

They replaced Republican officials who remained in office after the changeover from Republican to Democratic administration under terms of their commissions that they should serve until their successors were appointed and qualified.

The dispute revolved around a point raised by the Republican Senate caucus against throwing out GOP officials when no vacancies exist. Leader formally fired the six to create the vacancies.

There was no debate on the confirmations.

In other developments:

1. Gov. George M. Leader asked the Assembly to remove the so-called "peril point" in the unemployment compensation law, to increase benefits to workers and to boost payroll tax on employers.

2. Senate Republicans tentatively agreed to support Leader's House-passed government reorganization—if it is changed to require affirmative approval by each branch as is now required for a bill. As now written a reorganization plan, under the bill, would go into effect unless rejected by one house.

3. The governor also proposed legislation creating a 12-member commission to recommend specific government reorganization plans.

4. The Senate received administration-backed legislation to abolish discrimination in employment because of race, creed, color or national origin.

The appointments confirmed by the Senate:

Liquor Control Board—Patrick E. Kerwin, Lykens; Donald A. Behney, Lebanon, and John S. Rice, Gettysburg. Kerwin is slated to be chairman at $15,000, other members get $14,000.

Pennsylvania Securities Commission—J. Warren Mickle, Harrisburg, and Frank N. Happ, Pittsburgh, $10,000.

Workmen's Compensation Board—Dr. John L. Dorris, Nanticoke, $11,500.

Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board—Michael J. Crosetto, Galeton, $8,500.

Mother Fails In Efforts To Save 4 Tots

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, N.J., Feb. 7 (AP)—A frantic mother made several futile attempts today to enter her burning farm home but was driven back by flames in which her four small children perished.

Firemen said the blaze started in a kerosene heater and leveled the three-room bungalow room on the farm of Harry B. Duncan.

Mrs. Rita Ridgins, 26, and a neighbor, Mrs. Thelma Jones, tried to rescue the children through windows but were blocked by the fierce fire.

Firemen said Mrs. Ridgins had gone to fetch a bucket of water when the blaze broke out. The children's father, Willie Ridgins, was at work for a Trenton trucking firm.

Killed in the fire, according to state police, were Willie, 5; Christine, 4; Maxine, 2; and Bobbie, 11 months.

A fifth child of the Negro family, Lorraine, 6, was in school.

AMERICAN SABREJET pilots who shot down two of eight Russian-built MIGs over the Yellow Sea, west of Korea get together to swap experiences as they return to a Korean base. They are Lt. Charles F. Salmon (left) of Port Jervis, N. Y., and Capt. George F. Williams Jr. of Austin, Tex. The MIGs, it was announced, had attacked an American reconnaissance plane over the international waters. The two Fifth Air Force pilots were each credited with a "kill."

Red Planes Struck Without Warning, U.S. Pilots Report

By JAMES CARY

TOKYO, Tuesday, Feb. 8 (AP)—U. S. Sabrejet pilots who shot down two MIG jets Saturday said yesterday the Red planes struck without warning over the sea off North Korea.

Capt. George F. Williams of Austin, Tex., who got one of the MIGs, told a news conference 12 Sabrejets escorting an RB45 jet reconnaissance plane were on a routine mission.

"They had flown 40 miles up the North Korean coast and had turned south when eight MIGs jumped them."

"There was no warning," Williams said. "They came from above and behind us."

Lt. Charles E. Salmon of Port Jervis, N. Y., who bagged the other MIG, took up the story.

"I saw their tracers streaking past our plane like red balls," Salmon said.

"They were firing from too far away. They dove past my flight and attacked the reconnaissance bomber. I rolled over on my back, slipped down to the left and rolled out on the tail of one of them. Both were firing at the RB45s."

"I fired five or six bursts and he started to smoke. He burst into flame and slipped off down toward the sea."

Killians, who was in a different flight of Sabrejets said he saw the leading MIG flash in fast.

"I broke to the left and got in position," Williams said. "I opened up and hit him. He began to burn."

Williams said the flying ability of the MIG pilots was "not so good." He added that they were not really so poor but "we're just pretty good."

Williams referred to his 35th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron, which shot down more than 200 Red planes in the Korean War.

They reported there was no markings on the attackers to identify them as Chinese Communist, Russia or North Korea. All three Red air forces fly MIGs.

Ridgway Given VFW Gold Medal

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway today received the Gold Medal for Merit from the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

At a Pentagon ceremony, Commander-in-Chief Merton B. Tice cited Ridgway's "conspicuous and outstanding service" as supreme commander in the Far East and in Europe and now as chief of staff of the Army.

Burglars' Loot Of Limited Value

DALLAS, Feb. 7 (AP)—The burglars who stole 100 phonograph records from the home of Mrs. C. F. Haddell had better be hep to Greek, too.

Lyrics of the records are all in Greek, Mrs. Haddell told police today in reporting the burglary.

Dulles Doubts Chinese Want War With U.S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today that U. S. ratification of a defense treaty with Nationalist China might cool off the tough-talking Chinese Reds.

"I doubt that the Chinese Communists really intend to wage war against the United States unless the United States abandons this treaty with all that abandonment would imply," he told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Dulles said it was possible that Senate approval of the treaty and the already accomplished adoption of a defense treaty with Nationalist China might create a situation in which the present warlike mood of the Chinese Communists may subside.

The secretary made his appraisal in a statement he carried to a closed-door meeting of the committee. It is considering the mutual defense treaty signed by the United States and Nationalist China Dec. 2 under which the United States pledged its aid "in accordance with its constitutional procedures" if Communist forces should attack Formosa or the Pescadores Islands.

Sen. George D. Gal, Foreign Relations Committee chairman, told newsmen following a three-hour closed-door session with Dulles that Dulles had reported "nothing disturbing" about the evacuation of the Tachen Islands north of Formosa "so far as it has gone."

George said Dulles apparently had not been informed that Red Chinese anti-aircraft batteries reportedly opened up on high-flying U.S. war planes.

George said the committee would continue its consideration of the Formosa mutual defense pact tomorrow morning, with a good possibility of reporting it to the Senate for debate later in the day.

If the Senate is to give its consent to the treaty soon, George said, action must come by Wednesday or at the very latest, Thursday.

Senate leaders have agreed to take up nothing important or controversial after Thursday. George said, so that Republican stump orators can make their Lincoln Day speeches. The annual period of oratory honoring Lincoln will not end until Feb. 21.

George said he knew of no further witnesses the committee would hear and indicated committee approval might be given the agreement tomorrow.

Dulles, in saying he doubted the Chinese Reds want war with the United States added:

"I do not doubt that the Chinese Communists are probing our resolution. They do not doubt hope that we want peace so ardently that we will retreat in the face of their threats."

"It is true that we want peace and that we do want it ardently. However, we do not want it at the price of our security or of our honor."

"Indeed experience shows that those who try in that way to buy peace in fact only increase the ultimate danger of war. They encourage the aggressors to make ever-mounting demands, so that in the end there is no alternative but to fight."

Press Matusow Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—The Justice Department today sent its top internal security official to New York to help a federal grand jury unscramble the conflicting stories told by Harvey M. Matusow, self-styled former Communist.

Mother Accused Of Murder After Baby Dies Of Burns

PHILADELPHIA, N.J., Feb. 7 (AP)—A 7-month-old baby died tonight of first degree burns and state police said the child's mother will be charged with murder tomorrow.

Police said Mrs. Beatrice Makatura, 23, of Belvidere Pike near here, admitted setting fire to the crib in which her son, Stephen, slept. She then threatened to kill herself and another son, Richard, 3, because of domestic difficulties.

Firemen found Stephen under his blazing crib and rushed him to Warren Hospital where he died about six hours later. The child apparently fell to the floor when

Red Ground Guns Fire On Planes, None Comes Close

TAIPEI, Formosa, Tuesday, Feb. 8 (AP)—The massive evacuation of the Communist-menaced Tachen Islands began today with Chinese Nationalist navy ships loading civilians from the rocky beaches of Lower Tachen Island.

A dispatch from the U. S. 7th Fleet said the operation began at 8 a.m. (7 p.m. EST Monday).

U. S. Navy warships and planes threw a protective shield around the Tachens, 14 miles from the Red mainland and within gun range of Red Chinese artillery on Yikiangshan Island.

Officers on the U. S. amphibious flagship Estes said American ships had not taken aboard any of the Nationalist civilians.

British Urge Chinese Quit Small Islands

LONDON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Responsible informants said Britain urged the United States tonight to get Chiang Kai-shek's forces off all China coastal islands—Matsu and Quemoy included—as a first quick step toward an unwritten cease-fire.

Angry laborites pressed Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden in the House of Commons to plump publicly for immediate evacuation. Eden would only repeat that delicate negotiations are under way and Britain feels Red China has legal right to the offshore isles.

Even while Eden sidestepped Laborite questions, responsible informants said Britain already was urging full evacuation of the Nationalists in diplomatic exchanges with the United States.

Prime Minister Churchill's government was pictured as feeling that the explosive Formosa situation could be eased only by putting 75 miles or more of sea water between the Chinese Reds and Chiang's main bastions on Formosa and the Pescadores.

British Ambassador Sir Roger Makins was reported to have told the United States that prompt Nationalist evacuation of Quemoy and the Matsu chain would bring these advantages:

1. Chiang's troops would be removed from militarily exposed and untenable positions. Their withdrawal to Formosa and the Pescadores would eliminate a danger that the screening U. S. 7th Fleet might become involved in clashes with Red China forces.

2. Chiang and his U. S. protectors would be put in a stronger legal position in the eyes of world opinion.

Eden welcomed the Chinese Nationalist move to evacuate the Tachen Islands as a step in the right direction.

Board Rejects Request To Air Jointure

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP — The Washington Township School Board rejected a request by the township's Citizens Committee to meet and discuss school jointure problems at its meeting last night. President Franklin Shove presided at the session.

The board drew up a letter in answer to the one received from the committee offering the jointure discussion.

The board's letter disclosed the School Board felt there was nothing further to discuss on jointure problems since it previously had made the decision to form a four-district jointure with Portland, Upper Mt. Bethel and East Bangor. That quartet is now awaiting state approval of the plan.

Groundwork for the evacuation was performed yesterday by U. S. Navy beachmasters and Marines assisted by Nationalist troops.

Red artillery on Yikiangshan fired at U. S. 7th Fleet planes yesterday but none of the shells came close. Otherwise, the opening phase of the evacuation passed without incident.

Nationalist sources in Taipei said the evacuation began yesterday. However, reports from AP correspondents in the Tachens area made no mention of actual loading operations until today.

Poling radio said, however, that U. S. planes flew over Yikiangshan and other islands near the Tachens in "a military provocation greatly encroaching upon China's territory and sovereignty."

It asserted the U. S. craft left when Red planes took to the air. "If the U. S. Air Force ventures to intrude into China's territorial air again," said a broadcast heard in Tokyo, "the U. S. government must bear all serious consequences arising therefrom."

Nationalist sources said the first persons off the islands 200 miles north of Formosa were Chinese civilians. They were brought off by Nationalist landing craft under cover of the powerful 7th Fleet.

In all, 41,000 soldiers, civilians and guerrillas will be taken from the Tachens and nearby islands.

Despite tough talk from the Red China radio, all advices from the Tachens indicated that not once did the Communists dare to oppose the mightiest U. S. fleet to be massed in the Far East since the Inchon landing in the fall of 1950 during the Korean War.

The Communists still moved nervously in the area. Torpedo boats were reported cruising 17 miles from some fleet units. But the 800 or more Red planes believed based as close as 100 miles from the Tachens were held in leash.

AP correspondent Forrest Edwards reported from the 7th Fleet that carrier planes patrolling high over the Tachens were fired on by anti-aircraft gunners on Red islands north of the Tachens.

Two pilots told Edwards the Reds fired about six rounds but did not come close. First reports had said the shells came close.

On Yikiangshan, only eight miles north of the Tachens, pilots said they saw explosions which apparently were caused by demolition work. But Red artillery on Yikiangshan did not open upon the Tachens, where a party of U. S. Marines and Navy men went ashore.

The fleet was under orders to fire back if Yikiangshan's guns opened up.

Lt. Gen. Liu Lien-yl, commander of the Tachen garrison of 10,000 regulars and about 4,000 guerrillas, told U. S. naval officers he has not yet received orders to withdraw, AP correspondent Jim Becker said in a dispatch from Tachen.

Becker quoted officers as saying they believed Adm. Alfred M. Pride, 7th Fleet commander, had asked Taipei to speed up the orders for an operation that will take at least a week to complete.

Nationalist press reports said more than 18,000 civilians in the Tachen area wanted to leave.

The Communists made "no threatening nor unfriendly maneuvers whatsoever" in the first day of evacuation and "indications are the Reds do not intend to make any," one U. S. officer told Becker.

However, the 7th Fleet was on the alert. Rear Adm. Almonzo Sherwood Sabin Jr., commanding an amphibious force which has just arrived from evacuating Indochinese to Saigon, declared: "If I am fired upon I will fire back."

Suspect Surrenders

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 7 (AP)—Russell Winterbottom, 23, a rejected suitor who police said abducted his former girl friend after a quarrel in which a would-be peacekeeper, Det. James R. Henry, was shot to death, surrendered tonight. The girl was unharmed.

District Elks Name Reese As President

DANIEL J. REESE, of Lansford, was nominated for president of the Northeast Pennsylvania District Elks Assn. at the quarterly meeting held at the Lehighton lodge home Sunday afternoon.

The meeting was presided over by George Remagan, of Bangor. The attendance was smallest for a long time due to weather conditions. Thirteen of the 19 lodges in the district were represented.

In attendance from the East Stroudsburg lodge were: George H. Costenbader, exalted ruler; Carl S. Shamp, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hauser and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rutt.

Nominations for offices in addition to Reese for president, are: vice president, James Robinson, of Frackville; secretary, Wilbur G. Warner, of Lehighton; treasurer, Joseph Dunleavy, of Scranton, and member of executive board, John R. Hauser, secretary of East Stroudsburg lodge.

Election of officers will take place at the next quarterly meeting at Lansford lodge the first Sunday in May.

The highlight of the session Sunday was the memorial service, a new project in the district. The memories of approximately 150 members who had died during the past year were honored. The main address was given by Mr. Warner. The eulogy in memory of Walter Stanton, of Mount Carmel, district deputy grand exalted ruler, who died last fall while in office, was given by Samuel Maybrook, of Freehold. A girls' trio, of Lehighton High School, was heard in several selections.

There were various reports from committee chairmen which brought out the activities in the lodges in the district, including charity and youth service.

Preceding the district meeting, an exalted ruler and secretary clinic was conducted by the district deputy grand exalted ruler, Barney W. Wentz, of Ashland. Plans for the balance of the lodge year were discussed.

Visiting ladies were entertained by the Lehighton Auxiliary and lunch was served at the close of the session.

Woodpecker scalps, elephant tails, tobacco and beaver skins all have been used as money.

Stock Rally Halted Short Of New Mark

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—A rally in the stock market today dwindled and died when late profit-taking hit the aircrafts.

The market was headed toward the old all-time high established in 1929, as measured by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, when it stumbled, backed down from its best, and closed barely steady.

The AP average remained unchanged at $157.20, only 50 cents away from the Sept. 3, 1929, all-time high. The market started a recovery drive a little more than three years ago, and the AP average now is at the second highest level in its history.

The aircrafts have been strong in recent days with credit for buying interest going to the mounting tension over evacuation of the Chinese Tachen Islands by the American 7th Fleet.

Motors were buoyed by a report by Chrysler—up 2½, at 70½—that January retail sales were up 70 per cent from a year ago.

The industrial component was off 30 cents, railroads up 10 cents, and the utilities up 30 cents at a new high of $69.70.

There were 1,251 individual issues traded of which 594 were higher and 412 lower. One hundred are thirty two issues attained new highs for 1954-55 while no stocks hit new lows.

Volume amounted to 3,610,000 shares. That compares with 3,370,000 shares traded in Friday's strong market, when the AP average was up $1.20.

Electric & Musical Industries, a British firm, was the day's most active issue up ½ at 4½ on 124,400 shares.

The American Stock Exchange was mostly higher with trading at 1,470,000 shares as compared with 1,420,000 shares traded Friday. The bond market was active and mixed. U. S. government issues in the over the counter market were narrowly mixed.

Nixon Indicates To Cuba That Leaders Could Try Harder To Oust Island Reds

HAYANA, Cuba, Feb. 7 (AP)—Vice President Richard Nixon discussed the threat of world Communism with Cuban officials today and apparently dropped a hint there could be a more vigorous campaign against the Reds on this island.

Nixon emphasized before leaving Washington yesterday for a four-week swing through Caribbean countries that he wants to spread

It was learned he has given unusual emphasis in private conversations with Cuban leaders to the costly struggle the United States and other Western powers are waging with world communism. His words assumed special significance here because Cuba is regarded as second only to Brazil as an outpost of Moscow communism in the Western Hemisphere.

It is understood the U. S. State Department emphasized to Nixon as he prepared for this trip that communism in this hemisphere is part of a vigorous campaign directed from Moscow in a plan to create as much strife in the new world as possible. This view is intended to combat the widespread idea in Latin America that communism is merely a case of intellectual measles which some liberals suffer briefly.

There is apparently feeling in some quarters that Cuba, Brazil and other countries are trying to discourage communism, but are not trying hard enough.

Firemen Called By Auto Blaze

THE STROUDSBURG Fire Department was called out at 4:45 p.m. yesterday when an automobile caught fire while traveling west on Main St. People near the scene had the small blaze pretty well under control with extinguishers when the firemen arrived, according to Chief Millard Marsh.

The car was operated by Lawrence Transue of East Stroudsburg RD3. The incident occurred between Sixth and Seventh Sts. on Main.

Marsh said the fire apparently started when the heater hose broke. The wiring in the Transue car was considerably damaged.

SIX SCHOLARSHIPS

AVAILABLE FOR ANY COLLEGIATE COURSE LEADING TO A BACCALAUREATE DEGREE

FOR more than 300 years in America, custodianship for the teaching of the fundamentals of liberty and unobscured freedom of thought and action, has been the inherent function of the independent private college. However, with the inflationary influence on our economy in the past decade and more, many of the nation's private colleges and universities are now facing serious financial problems. Unless aid is forthcoming, the situation promises to get progressively worse.

Toward solution of this problem, Pennsylvania Power & Light Company has joined with other progressive American businesses. The PP&L program combines provisions for aiding the colleges of this area with a plan of scholarships for deserving young people of Central Eastern Pennsylvania who otherwise might not have an opportunity to further their schooling.

Now in its second year, the PP&L program provides for the establishment of six undergraduate scholarships each year for the sons and daughters of residents of the service area who are also customers of the Company or its subsidiaries. At least one of these scholarships will be made available to the son or daughter of an employee. These scholarships may be used to pursue any course of study which leads to a baccalaureate degree.

High school seniors interested in these scholarships should take the following steps:

- (1) Get in touch with your high school authorities or the local office of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company for full information on this scholarship program.
- (2) File application for your scholarship with the PP&L Scholarship Awards Committee, 901 Hamilton Street, Allentown, Pa., by March 12, 1955. Application forms can be secured either from your high school or from the Company.
- (3) Submit application by February 19, 1955, to the College Entrance Examination Board for taking the College Entrance Board Scholastic Aptitude Test of March 12, 1955. These forms are available at your high school. March 12 is the only remaining date on which you now can take this test and still be in time to compete for a PP&L scholarship. Should you already have taken your College Boards on January 8, 1955 the results of this test will be recognized in lieu of the March 12 examination.

ASK FOR YOUR COPY—PP&L has outlined its program of educational assistance in an informative 12-page pamphlet that covers the program from its aims and purposes to the broad details of the scholarships. Young people, parents, educators, business and industrial corporations . . . anybody interested in any way in higher education . . . can obtain a copy of this booklet by stopping at, or writing to, the nearest Company office.

Chinese Red Intentions Not Yet Indicated

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

The beginning of the Tachen evacuation without Communist interference offers no real clue to the ultimate effect of the toughened U. S. attitude regarding Formosa.

At first glance it might appear the 7th Fleet has the Reds stopped. That is not a supportable inference. It would be very foolish for the Reds, being handed the islands on a platter, to risk starting a war at the moment the United States and the Nationalists are making a move which all the neutrals can see is designed to avoid bloody contract. However, warlike Red intentions may be, this would not be the moment.

Antiaircraft fire against planes so close to their land positions is merely something anyone would do.

It is far more likely that clues to Red intentions will come after the evacuation is complete, and they have taken over the Tachens. Then they will have the opportunity to embrace a de facto cease-fire or start military operations somewhere else.

Intense diplomatic activity among the anti-Communist nations suggests strenuous efforts will be made to get the situation out of the military field and back into that of political action by the time the fleet's demonstration of its strength is completed.

The form such action will take is expected to be clarified in the next day or two.

Anthony Eden indicates Britain is going ahead with her effort to enlist Russia's influence against further Red military action.

Some new American move in the U. N. apparently is in the making.

India's Nehru is expected to attempt an organized neutralist approach to Peking as soon as he gets home from the Commonwealth Ministers meeting in London, or even before. But since he favors giving Formosa to the Reds, he is not likely to be accepted as a mediator by the United States.

Some observers have interpreted the manner of Peking's refusal to attend Security Council sessions as indicating a desire for a Geneva conference, to which the United States is opposed. The United States already has taken the position that she has nothing to offer in a trade except peace in place of the war that will come if the Reds attack Formosa.

The only profit, then, from a Big Power meeting could be a cease-fire while negotiations were under way. That did not happen during either the Indochina or Korean truce negotiations. Instead, the Reds pressed their military efforts during those periods to back their political claims.

Adenauer Asks Bundestag To Ratify Pact

BONN, Germany, Feb. 7 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today called on the Bundestag, the lower House of Parliament, to ratify the Paris rearmament treaties this month "without waiting on political developments in France."

He told the Bundestag's Foreign Affairs Committee "I feel that the French government crisis will not last much longer and that the new French government will support the treaties as did Premier Mendes-France."

Mendes-France's government fell Saturday on another issue, North African policy. Ex-Premier Antoine Pinay is trying to form a new Cabinet.

The Chancellor warned anew against negotiations with the Russians on the German question before final ratification of the treaties, under which a virtually sovereign West Germany would line up troops in Western defense.

"Threat troops in Western defense."

Skidding Truck Damages Auto

SLIPPERY HIGHWAYS were blamed for a $300 accident on Dead Man's Curve west of Stroudsburg yesterday morning.

Stroudsburg State police said Charles Kelly, 24, of Scranton, was driving west at 7:15 a.m. when his truck skidded on the sharp curve. It slid into the east-bound auto of Leon L. Griffith, 34, Bethlehem, police said.

Damages were all to the car.

Chauffeur Saves Margaret From Getting Real Drenching

ST. GEORGE'S, Grenada, Feb. 7 (AP)—Princess Margaret got caught in a thundershower today—the second time in two days. But an alert chauffeur quickly raised the top of the open convertible in which she was riding and that, with a parasol, saved her from a drenching.

The princess was seated in a gleaming white car riding around the track of Queen's Park in St. George's to wave to about 20,000 school children and adults at a rally. Margaret, 24-year-old sister of Queen Elizabeth, is on a month-long good will tour of the Caribbean.

The rain came suddenly. A parasol was raised over the princess and the black convertible top came up quickly as the car continued around the track.

Also at the rally were delegates from St. Lucia and Dominica of the Windward Islands, which the princess will not visit on her tour of the British West Indies. She expressed regret at not being able to see those islands.

The princess told Grenada officials she will carry back this island's message of "loyal devotion" to her sister and added: "I know in what high regard she holds the allegiance of her people in the British West Indies."

After the rally the princess motored through the streets of St. George's and past fields of sugar cane on the outskirts. The sun was out again. The drive twisted over the narrow roads up and down the mountains which embrace the city. Margaret donned dark glasses against the sun and waved to the crowds which stood by the roadside.

Coffee Prices May Drop Again

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—Another drop in retail coffee prices seemed in the making today following a sharp break in coffee futures and wholesale prices resulting from the weekend action by Brazil to bring export prices lower.

The Grand Union Co. announced late today a 10-cents-a-pound price reduction on its own brand bag-packed coffees sold in the 300 Grand Union markets in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Vermont and Massachusetts.

Financing Hospitals

Of all our community institutions, the most hard-pressed appear to be the voluntary hospitals—the fine medical and surgical institutions, organized privately, financed by charitable contributions and open to the public.

They fall in a sort of financial no-man's land. The public doesn't own them and government accepts only a modest share of responsibility for them. The big fortunes which once helped develop these institutions are no longer available as a source of contributions. Both the standards and the cost of hospital care have increased greatly, and the hospitals are caught in a financial squeeze.

On a national average, the paying patient doesn't quite pay the cost of his hospital care, and part of it is made up in other ways, even though the amount paid by the patient seems high to him.

The state government many years ago assumed some responsibility for paying at least part of the hospital cost of destitute patients. However, the state pays only a fraction of the cost.

The state follows a curious budget procedure in paying these hospitals. It appropriates a lump sum to be distributed among 189 hospitals throughout the state. For the two years ending next May 31, that sum is $16,772,400 and it is distributed among the hospitals as far as it will reach, which isn't too far, considering the amount of free care given by them.

It would seem that the state ought to do something more realistic toward meeting this problem. Sure, the state has financial troubles, but we're going to be taxed to finance a lot of things less necessary than hospital care. And we, as citizens, are going to have to pay these hospitals one way or another, either through taxes or contributions.

'As Old as Your Doubt'

"... Youth is not entirely a time of life—it is a state of mind. It is not wholly a matter of ripe cheeks, red lips or supple knees. It is a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions, a freshness of the deep springs of life.

"It means a temperamental predominance of courage over timidity, of an appetite for adventure over love of ease. Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years.

"People grow old only by deserting their ideals. Years may wrinkle the skin, but to give up interest wrinkles the soul.

"Worry, doubt, self-distrust, fear and despair—these are the long, long years that bow the head and turn the growing spirit back to dust.

"Whatever your years, there is in every being's heart the love of wonder, the undaunted challenge of events, the unflinching child-like appetite for what next, and the joy and the game of life.

"You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your self-confidence, as old as your fear; as young as your hope, as old as your despair.

"In the central place of every heart there is a recording chamber; so long as it receives messages of beauty, hope, cheer and courage, so long are you young.

"When the wires are all down and your heart is covered with the snows of pessimism and the ice of cynicism, then, and then only are you grown old."—From the speech of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, on his 75th birthday.

George Sokolsky Says...

There Is No Free Market As Long As Determining Factor Is Politics

I walked into a hardware store a few days ago and picked up a chopping board. It was made in Yugoslavia.

The same day, I read an item that a Hollywood motion picture company is planning to produce Tolstoy's "War and Peace," and that the production would be made in Yugoslavia. Maybe, the chopping board could be made more efficiently in Tito's realm, but has Hollywood sunk so low that thousands of American workers have to be kept out of jobs because there are superior electricians, carpenters, scene-painters, grips, bit-players, musicians, etc., in Yugoslavia compared with those in the United States? The picture will be shown in this country; its profits, if any, will be earned here. Why then do this job in Yugoslavia?

Now along comes a release from the American Knit Handwear Association which reports that in 1953 there were 39 American firms in this industry; today, there are only 22. This, of course, is not a big industry like steel or automobiles, but it does give employment to Americans. In 1952, more than 4,000 Americans were employed in it; today, there are less than 1,500, which means a decrease of 63 percent.

If one looks at the figures of earnings of American companies, it seems as though this industry is going out of business altogether.

her. It cannot compete with low wages, low taxes, government subsidies, etc. There is a Gresham's Law in the marketplace; low-wage goods drives high-wage goods out of market unless there is a quality differential or protection against the evil, and generally there is no such quality differential.

From the standpoint of the free market, these American firms, if they cannot compete with British and Japanese manufacturers, ought to go out of business. In terms of strict capitalist theory, no one should be protected against the consequences of competition. But from the standpoint of social conditions in the United States, the peril is that we shall have unemployment and we shall have ghost towns and we shall have disturbed conditions. The economic doctrine of the free market here comes into conflict with the social doctrine of full employment and must be resolved politically. John L. Lewis is already making the telling point that the enormous unemployment in the coal industry, partly due to the import of residual oil, be met by distributing food surpluses to American miners instead of foreign governments.

Wood hardware imports have increased from 32,000 dozen pairs in 1946-48 to an estimated 1,200, 600 dozen pairs in 1954. In the United States wages in this industry average $1.15 an hour in Japan, the same industry pays just under 12 cents an hour. A protective tariff could be devised to keep Japanese knit gloves out of this country but then we have political problems with Japan such as the necessity of providing a market for Japanese goods in the United States to keep the Japanese from moving into Red China's corner. As a matter of fact, negotiations are now taking place between Red China and Japan which can have far-reaching effects upon our already too complicated situation in the Far East.

Unless we open our markets to Japan, they will have to cultivate trade with Red China and even with Soviet Russia, if they can get it. The danger to the American manufacture of products with which Japanese products can compete in American markets is that politics rather than economics will prevail. There is no free market as long as the determining consideration is not competition but politics.

This then is the peril that the small American manufacturers face and they go before the Ways and Means Committee to present their case knowing full well that their arguments are going to fall on deaf ears because so many of our legislators have become statesmen who forget the needs of their constituents in the face of the deterioration of our relations with foreign countries.

The United States can exist without woolen gloves, but when the trend is to kill off so many marginal industries, the gross effect of such a policy could be the destruction not only of marginal but also of essential industries, such as watches, in which Americans must be kept at work because of the skills involved, or lead and zinc, which in wartime could not be imported from overseas.

ON WITH THE PROBE! Senator J. William Fulbright begins his stock market probe soon... He promises it will be without circus aspects...

We understand it is not only hard to find a supply of mid-gets but almost impossible to find a supply of Morgans... The market doesn't seem greatly disturbed by the investigation, but has had some setbacks on rumors it might not fully reveal how easy it has been to double your money by NOT asking your broker's advice...

Our yen is to see our broker, Z. Cheevers Dodgem, put on the stand. Q.—You are a broker? A.—Yes, sir. Q.—You just gave unhesitatingly a complete answer to a question. Has this happened before? A.—Not in the past couple years.

Q.—Do you plead guilty or not guilty? A.—To what? Q.—To unnecessary cautiousness, extreme hemming-and-hawing, general evasiveness and a disposition to reply "Well, you never can tell" to all questions? A.—I plead the 86th Amendment.

Q.—What is the 86th Amendment?

A.—It's the one that says no broker or customers man who has been wrong on this market may be compelled to testify against his own lack of decision.

Q.—What did you say months ago when General Motors was in the 40's?

A.—Must you bring that up? Q.—Do you remember telling me when du Pont was 104 that you thought I should wait for a recession?

A.—How I wish I could forget it!

Q.—I show you a memorandum and ask if you recall the day a year ago when I asked about U. S. Steel in the forties?

A.—I admit I had two answers to all such questions a year ago or thereabouts. (1) "It could go higher or it could go lower." (2) "This market has had quite a rise but on the other hand ipso facto nux vomica and what do you hear that's new?"

Q.—Aren't you forgetting a third answer?

A.—Oh, yes. I remember my third answer was "There are many factors in this market. It could be a time for caution or a time for boldness. Personally I like vanilla. Call me up any time you are perplexed by values."

Q.—Whatever became of the old-fashioned broker who was a good judge of stock values, trusted his own conclusions and did not hesitate to give a customer an opinion without straining his words through cheesecloth?

A.—He joined the vanishing Americans.

Q.—Are you the author of the famous slogan "My market when it is up, my market when it is down, but up or down, no comment"?

A.—May I consult my counsel, Counsel (sullenly)—You'll get no help from me; I missed a fortune by listening to you, too!!!

THE SCARLET LETTER

My America

—by Harry Boyd

It must be nice to be a born planner. Planners live such neat, orderly, logical lives.

At any rate, they lay out tidy blueprints for them—a chore for every minute, with no unsightly loose ends.

How their schedules pan out over the long pull I don't know. Nobody seems to print the final box-scores on these estimable people and a person tends to lose track of them after reading of the ingenious programs they work out for a happy lifetime of systematic effort.

Nevertheless I envy these people and find an occasional shot of their philosophy a powerful incentive to change my ways and become a better man.

This effect soon passes, of course, for the sensible time-budgeting that comes naturally to the congenial planner just isn't down the confirmed piddler's alley.

You take this man Josephs who has a stimulating piece in Coronet on how to get more satisfaction out of a 24-hour day. The thing to do, says he, is to take 30 of your 960 waking minutes each day (planners always get eight hours' sleep, on the nose) and use them as exhaust valves and superchargers.

You split them up into 10-minute batches. The first batch should be used first off in the morning, when the average muddier is apt to crawl out of bed at the latest possible moment, gulp a cup of coffee and dash to work tense and ornery—"hardly an auspicious beginning for a busy day."

Now, that fellow should get up 10 minutes earlier and putter around in the garden, fraternize with his parakeets, read some classic literature or listen to a snatch of good music. This not only would smooth out the wrinkles in his soul but would "put everything that follows in better perspective."

At least until the mid-morning coffee break. That's probably a good time to inject the second shot-in-the-arm—provided "you employ the time not to gossip but to reawaken your creative process."

I'd spar a little with Mr. Josephs on that one. If anyone gives the creative process a livelier workout than the average gossip, I don't know who. He can fashion some of the most fantastic creations out of thin air and circumstantial suspicion.

"You will be surprised at how many good ideas you get" out of a properly exploited coffee break. These ought to keep you perking until the end of your working day.

At that point, Mr. Josephs suggests, you might well use the remaining 10 refresher minutes to jot down the things you should do tomorrow.

This just goes to show how little a born planner understands the harried people who spend their whole lives elbowing their way through endless clutter. They should live to see the day when they can list what they ought to do tomorrow in 10 minutes!

Alben Barkley, so deep in the hearts of his Kentucky countrymen that he was able to make an electrifying political comeback at the ripe old age of seventy-six, owes much of his popularity to his way with a barbed anecdote. His stories are often older than he is, but he tells them beautifully—and besides, he's a celebrity. Celebrities can get away with yarns that would cause a mere amateur to be thrown out of the joint.

Barkley's "That Reminds Me" is liberally stocked with the kind of stories I have in mind. The legend, for instance, that the day he hit 76 he announced, "I feel like a 2-year-old," to which a crony replied, "Horse or egg?" And that Marvin College, where he served as part-time janitor in his student days, erected a sign later that read, "Barkley swept here."

Sign in a Colorado Springs bar: "No women served in this establishment. Bring your own."

Of some six hundred published church hymns, four are way out in front in popularity. They are in order of preference, Abide With Me; Nearer, My God to Thee; Lead, Kindly Light, and Rock of Ages.

Pumpkins have been known to develop roots having a total length of 82,000 feet.

The first horseless carriage on record appeared on the streets of Nuremberg, Germany, in 1619.

Only one-tenth of the doctors in the United States drive cars older than four years.

Over the three centuries 1650-1950, world population appears to have more than quadrupled.

Robert S. Allen Reports

Philippines Alarmed Over Formosa Project

Washington, February 8.—A significant new voice is being raised in the Formosa crisis.

The Philippine government, oldest and closest U. S. ally in the Pacific and a key pillar of the SEATO alliance, is evincing grave misgivings about military measures in the embattled Formosa area.

The Philippines, only an hour distant by jets from Red China, fear their defenses are being dangerously weakened at a time when they urgently need strengthening.

President Magsaysay is particularly alarmed over: Shifting most of the American air and naval forces in the Philippines to Formosa.

Evacuating the Tachen Islands. In Magsaysay's protests to Washington, he is critical of the transfer of the U. S. air and naval units on the ground that leaves the Philippines "virtually defenseless" against a surprise Communist attack. His vigorous pleas for immediate replacements are being heartily supported by local American commanders.

Similarly, Magsaysay wants the Tachen Islands, as well as the other Nationalist coastal outposts, held because they constitute a powerful buffer between Red China and the Philippines. He argues that as long as these offshore strongholds are in friendly hands, the Communists will be unable to seriously threaten the Philippines.

This contention also has the backing of important U. S. leaders, foremost among them Admiral Radford.

Senate Foreign Relations Committee members have been informed the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff made another effort to persuade President Eisenhower to retain the Tachen Islands. This recommendation was favored by two of the three service chiefs—Admiral Robert Carney and Air General Nathan Twining. Army General Ridgway disapproved.

The President sided with Ridgway, and rejected Radford's proposal.

The President also directly asserted his personal command in the explosive Formosa crisis in still another significant instance.

Foreign Relations Committee members have been told the President expressly ordered the redrafting of a Navy directive to the Seventh Fleet. Admiral Carney proposed firing at Red planes immediately upon their being observed. The President had that order rewritten so that Communist planes would be attacked only in the event they display hostile intentions.

Chinese Pocket Furnaces

—by H. G. Heller

Another of those most interesting bits from Mrs. Gertrude R. Rugh on China and the Chinese, written from many years of experience living with them is certainly fitting during this season.

It deals with pocket furnaces—not the modern type affair like the lighter-fluid burning hand warmer—but much more unusual warmers. But let Mrs. Rugh tell you about them:

We might do well to follow the old Chinese custom of using curious hand-furnaces during these nippy winter days, chiefly up here in the hills where the winds bite hard at times.

In place of having the fire in the house, as we usually have it, the Chinese carry it about their person, beneath their thickly padded clothing or in the hand. Sometimes it is placed beneath the chair where one is seated or under the feet. The contrivance resembles a small brass coal-pan. One old gentleman kindly removed his cotton-padded coat and disclosed a small copper furnace secured round his waist by a band neatly covered with wicker-work.

This artificial form of heating the body is only resorted to in bitter cold weather and it is good that it is not more frequently used, for it has been discovered that the persons who habitually use these pocket-furnaces (as they are called by the Chinese) develop strange swellings—old men and women with queer swellings in the most unaccountable places! These swellings gradually lead to various sorts of deformity.

However, the hand-warmers and foot-warmers that the Chinese make and use are not only useful and interesting, but decorative as well. Most Chinese do not wear gloves, but have their garments made with long sleeves and they carry a small, round brass carved bowl-like container filled with charcoal, and let their sleeves come way down over both hand and warmer and not the slightest breeze can creep in.

The foot-warmers are truly advantageous. If you make a winter call and arrive with cold feet, your very gracious host will bring in a much larger brass-carved charcoal container and invite you to place your cold feet on it. It is unbelievable and most interesting how quickly your cold feet warm up and also, how your attention is at once directed to the fascinating brass carved foot-warmer! We find one occasionally over here among antique collections, or on some living-room mantle piece where it is indeed a welcome addition!

Rake Sentenced On Arson Charge; Rembold Granted Parole

Kresgeville Man Given 1-2 Years

JULIAN RAKE, proprietor of the Mansion House in Kresgeville, will spend one to two years in the penitentiary for arson.

That was the sentence imposed yesterday by President Judge Fred W. Davis against the 48-year-old father of six, who previously confessed setting fire to his hotel.

The sentence was to be computed from Jan. 3, 1955, when Rake was jailed.

Rake was also ordered to pay a $500 fine and costs. After sentencing he was remanded to the county jail to await transportation to the Eastern Correctional and Diagnostic Center—first step on the road into Eastern Penitentiary.

Rake was arrested Oct. 14 by Cpl. Donald Unger, district fire marshal. He admitted pouring gasoline in the bar of his hotel, then leading a trail of it out into the hallway, and setting fire to it.

He drove off and was some distance away when the alarm was turned in, authorities said.

West End Fire Co. volunteers battled the fire for hours, before extinguishing it. Damage was listed at $4,000.

Rake, a former coal trucker, and his wife acquired title to the hotel last year.

State To Build $28,000 Bridge

A $28,000 STEEL bridge will be built by the State Highway Department near McMichaels in the Spring.

County commissioners yesterday were asked—by letter—to contribute $500 toward right-of-way damages for the improvement. Action was deferred because of the absence of one commissioner.

The bridge will span McMichaels Creek, on Route 45067, opposite a dairy. It leads to the blacktop State road between McMichaels and Broadheadville.

The present bridge has a two-ton limit. The new one will support 20 to 30 tons and will be about three times longer. It will include a 100-foot approach.

The new bridge will be made with steel girders and open steel deck.

Fire Destroys Small Cottage

PORTLAND—Fire at 12:15 p.m. yesterday destroyed a small cottage and all the contents and belongings of Adolph Labadie, at Middle Village, near here.

A garage attached to the cottage was partially burned, but an auto in that structure was saved.

Cottage was located on the Lillian MacNamee property between here and Mt. Bethel.

Officials said flames were sent swiftly through the structure by an exploding kerosene stove.

Portland fire company responded but were unable to save Labadie's home and contents. They prevented complete destruction of the garage.

John Bellis, 78, Expires

JOHN BELLIS, 78, of 33 Stofflet St., died at his home yesterday at 1 a.m. following a short illness. He was a native of Tannersville but lived most of his life in Stroudsburg.

Bellis is survived by three sons, Emanuel, William and Russell; and one daughter, Mrs. Theresa Hooy, all of Stroudsburg; four grandchildren; and one brother, William of Allentown.

Private funeral services will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the William H. Clark funeral home with Rev. Harold C. Eaton officiating. Interment will be in the Stroudsburg Cemetery. There will be no viewing.

Rep. Walter Charges Delays In Deporting Certain Aliens Threatens To Become Racket

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Rep. Walter (D-Pa.) said today that he says in deporting aliens after Congress has repeatedly denied them admission to the United States is in danger of becoming a "racket."

Walter is chairman of the House Judiciary immigration subcommittee, which called in Gen. Joseph M. Swing, recently appointed commissioner of immigration, and other officials for an explanation.

Swing conceded "there has been some very poor staff work" and "worse than negligence" on the part of district immigration officials—an admission Walter described as "the understatement of the year."

Swing bluntly ascribed some of the troubles of his service to "the habit of succumbing to pressure." He told the subcommittee the pressure came from "prominent people" in government and elsewhere. "I'm aware of what's going on,"

Pennsylvania Officials Show Interest In Edison National Park Project At Water Gap

THE PROPOSAL TO DEVELOP a national park shrine on the twin mountains split by the Delaware Water Gap gorge has attracted the attention of Gov. George M. Leader and his secretary of forests and waters, Maurice Goddard.

This interest was evidenced in a letter received by Walter von Brook, former operator of the Penn-Stroud Hotel almost simultaneously with added support for the Edison National Park at the annual dinner Saturday of Edison Pioneers in New York.

Franklin C. Miller

County Native To Appear In Production

FRANKLIN C. MILLER, a Pocono Pines native, will appear in the Wilkes-Barre Little Theater production of Mary Chase's two-act fantasy, "Mrs. McThing," at Irem Temple, Wilkes-Barre this Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Miller also had a recent leading role in the Wilkes-Barre Little Theater production "The Traitor." The fantasy features of "Mrs. McThing" make it appealing entertainment for children and adults. Curtain time is 8 p. m.

Robert Getts Asks Court For Parole

A REQUEST for parole was taken under advisement yesterday in the case of Robert Getts, 24, Allentown, in county jail for involuntary manslaughter since Sept. 27 last year.

The request was made before President Judge Fred W. Davis at yesterday's session of regular court, by Getts' attorney, Leo Achtermann.

He was driver of a car which collided with one at Tobyhanna April 22, 1953. Mr. and Mrs. Asa English, then 78 and 70, of Gouldsboro, were injured critically. Mrs. English died shortly after.

Last September, Getts was sentenced to pay a $500 fine plus costs and serve a six-month-to-one-year sentence in the county jail.

Atty. Achtermann said Getts had paid costs of about $300, but had not yet paid the fine. He asked to be released, said he would obtain a job with a Bethlehem steel company and pay the fine out of his earnings. He added that he plans to go to college if allowed his freedom.

"Do you regret the accident?" he was asked by his attorney.

"More than I can ever say, sir," Getts replied in a low voice.

Liquor License Is Suspended

Davis Tells Of Looting Travis Store

A WEST Virginian was paroled yesterday for the $2,000 burglary of the C. H. Travis & Sons hardware store in East Stroudsburg on Nov. 22, 1953.

He was Bernard Rembold, 23, Horseshoe Run, who appeared before President Judge Fred W. Davis.

In telling the story of the burglary, Rembold said he and a companion, George Pase, 38, also a West Virginian, were on their way back from Canada the night of the burglary.

While Rembold sat and watched a movie in East Stroudsburg, Pase broke in and ransacked the store. Afterward, Rembold drove up in the car and helped load the stolen goods, he admitted.

The investigation was carried out by Officer Travis Seese, with cooperation of Delaware State police and troopers from Avondale, Pa.

Seese said Pase had been convicted of crimes 28 times and was in Graterford Penitentiary, where it was expected he would succumb because of illness.

Rembold was represented by Forrest J. Mervine, who told the court his client had been doing all he could to make amends, make restitution, and conduct himself properly.

District Attorney Elmer D. Christine, and Seese, brought out that Rembold and Pase had burglarized three places, had later faced charges in Monroe, Philadelphia and Chester County. Rembold served six months in Philadelphia, received a suspended sentence in Chester County.

Mervine reported many letters from residents in Rembold's community pleading for leniency.

Seese said Rembold had been very cooperative after his arrest, and while on bail pending the current charge, had done what he could to gather together the goods dispersed after the theft.

About $705 worth of goods had been returned, Seese said. Latest addition was a chain saw valued at $236, which Rembold had bought back from a man in Ohio to whom he had sold it for $125.

Seese said some $1,200 worth of goods were still unaccounted for. Rembold said he intended to repay the amount in cash, in lieu of the goods themselves. He told the court he earns $7 a day.

Judge Davis inquired how Rembold and Pase knew of Travis' store.

Rembold replied he didn't—hadn't heard of it before. He said they just saw it as they returned from a Canadian trip.

"Oh," said the judge. "I didn't know... it has been burglarized with such regularity that I thought perhaps there was a 'grapevine'."

Officer Seese said later that the store has been burglarized a number of times over a long period of years.

In passing sentence, Judge Davis said he was taking into consideration that the crime had been done on a "spree of lawlessness" for which Rembold later was jailed. He also considered the fact that the defendant's attitude after his arrest had been "excellent," and that he was doing his best to make restitution.

The judge ordered Rembold for five years, paroled him to make the restitution payments twice each year in sums of $150, and pay costs of about $90 within 30 days.

Johns Jailed 14 Months On Charges

FOURTEEN months in county jail and a $300 fine—that was the sentence yesterday against Frank H. Johns Jr., 25, of 17 Rose St., East Stroudsburg, charged with car theft and failing to stop at an accident scene.

President Judge Fred W. Davis ordered the fine and a year in jail on the car theft charge. The two-month sentence, to run consecutively, was for the failure to stop after the accident in East Stroudsburg New Year's Morning.

Restitution will mean payment of $675 for repairs to the stolen car—owned by Ralph Van Buskirk, Stroudsburg—said District Attorney Elmer D. Christine.

Officer Travis Seese of East Stroudsburg related that Johns took Van Buskirk's car, then fled after colliding with a parked car.

Johns told the court he had been drinking before he stole the car.

The defendant was trapped by his four front teeth: they were knocked loose during the accident, and picked up by police later. When the denture fitted, police knew they had the right man. Johns later confessed the theft.

Women's Unit To Organize

THE FIRST official enrollment of the Women's Auxiliary Police unit for Monroe County will be held tonight at 7:30 at Day St. firemen's building, East Stroudsburg.

Mrs. Gertrude Blitz, women's chief, will conduct the enrolling of members aided by a staff group. All women interested in being a part of the newest Civil Defense advancement in the county are asked to attend this important session.

This meeting will also mark the first gathering of the graduated men's Auxiliary Police group of East Stroudsburg. Maj. William D. Plummer, area police co-ordinator, will display the official auxiliary police uniform the men will wear while on duty.

Tentative assignments will be made of the stations and patrol areas the men will cover during emergencies.

More enlistments of men will be taken tonight also in order to expand the present strong force. The new plan calls for men and women members to take instructions simultaneously under the direction of former state policeman Arthur Jones. No date for these classes has been set as yet.

Training will be adaptable to all phases of Civil Defense—wardens, mass care center workers, ambulance drivers and the many other duties to be fulfilled during time of disaster.

Executive Director Paul Crawn and Major Plummer will explain the functions of the organization during the meeting and answer questions. East Stroudsburg Director J. Fielding Vollers and Mrs. Earl Miller of the headquarters staff will also take part in tonight's important event.

Oscar Peechatka Rites Conducted

THE FUNERAL of Oscar Peechatka of Scotrun was held yesterday at the Gantzhorn funeral home. Burial was in the Scotrun Cemetery with Rev. E. T. Horn officiating.

Pallbearers were Kenneth Hay, Markley Eloss, Lawrence, William, Richard and Sharon Peechatka.

Time Already Spent In Jail Cancels 210-Day Sentence For Violating Probation

FOR VIOLATING the terms of his probation, William Chalmers, 34, Philadelphia, was sentenced to 210 days in county jail.

But Chalmers has already served his time. The sentence followed a lengthy hearing in which both county probation officers, Chalmers, Mrs. Chalmers, and a public assistance agent testified.

Judge Imposes $300 Fines On Two Drivers

TWO MEN were sentenced yesterday by President Judge Fred W. Davis to pay $300 fines for drunken driving.

Clyde E. Brown, 45, Stroud Township, was arrested by Officer Charles Allen of Stroudsburg after his car was observed weaving along Main St., Dec. 5. Brown was given three months to pay fine and costs.

Lawrence Buzzard, 35, Stroudsburg RD2, was arrested May 29 by Pfc. Peter Sabinsky of Stroudsburg station, after his car struck that of a Jim Thorpe man on Route 209 at Fenner's Greenhouse, a few miles west of Stroudsburg.

Two Persons Hospitalized With Injuries

A CAR SPUN in a skid, then crashed into a tree on Route 611 four miles north of Stroudsburg yesterday. Two occupants were hospitalized.

Stroudsburg troopers said the driver was Edward Leotta, 33, Jessup, who suffered cuts on the scalp. His passenger, Henry Yorkanis, 30, Troop, suffered a broken left arm. Both are at East Stroudsburg General Hospital.

The accident occurred on a curve at 5:45 a.m., according to police. The car was demolished—a $650 loss.

Former Judge To Address Club

FORMER JUDGE James F. McGovern of Jersey City, N. J., will speak at the Stroudsburg Lions Club meeting at the Penn Stroud Hotel tonight at 6:30.

He was judge of the Hudson County Traffic Court from 1940 to 1948. Since 1948, he has been practicing law in Jersey City.

The former judge was admitted to the bar in 1934 after being educated in St. Peter's Prep School, Jersey City; St. John's College and Fordham University Law School.

Ed Driebe, club president, will preside at tonight's meeting.

A message from Howard Flagler, "Your Pharmacist"

CONTRARY TO THE GENERAL BELIEF, the prescriptions that you think are the easiest to compound, the kind we "Just take out of a bottle," are often difficult to fill.

THERE ARE ONLY 26 LETTERS IN THE ALPHABET, and we have literally thousands of prescription drugs and preparations. Digitalis, Digoxin, Digitoxin, Digitaria, Digalen, etc., are just a few of many drugs beginning with Dig.

OFTEN MANY DRUGS have names so similar to others, that we have to contact your Physician to make certain that we are reading the name correctly, because dispensing an error is unthinkable.

SO IF WE READ YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS very slowly at time, or do not make delivery with our usual promptness, be patient with us please. We are just being very careful, because we want to compound your prescriptions exactly as your Physician specifies.

William J. Hamblin, 93, Honored At Open House

William J. Hamblin, 93, was as fresh as a daisy at the end of an open house in celebration of his birthday held Sunday at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hamblin, Brown Street, East Stroudsburg.

It was a day which might have tired a much younger man, with callers starting at 2 in the afternoon and coming without intermission until well after 9:30 at night. Refreshments were served from a buffet table, including part of the decorated birthday cake.

The callers included many of the prominent Democrats of the county, since Mr. Hamblin has long been active in Democratic politics in this county.

"We've had three Democratic Governors in Pennsylvania and I've helped elect them all," he recalled at the party. He also attended the inauguration ceremonies for all except Governor Leader. A little shortness of breath has slowed him down this winter, but not before he traveled far and wide.

Guests at the party recalled that when the Monroe County delegation went to Washington for President Truman's inauguration, they all were worn out by the end of the long and busy day—all except Mr. Hamblin who was still full of pep and fun.

"I've enjoyed living my life more than anybody in the county," he agreed, "and it's been that way all my life. Never needed much sleep, either."

He recalled the days on the farm in Swiftwater where he lived in the same house for 30 years and of the lively stable and the drives he used to make. It took about two and a half hours to come to town in those days, he recalls.

Traveling—and enjoying the trip—has been one of his happiest memories. He recalled that six years ago while Claude Metzger was state president of the POS of A, he accompanied him on trips throughout the state, traveling 25,000 miles and never tiring in all that time.

Open House For 50th Anniversary

Saylorsburg — Mr. and Mrs. John F. Siegel of Saylorsburg will be the guests of honor at an open house celebrating their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday, February 12, from 1 to 5 p.m. at their home in Saylorsburg.

The open house is being arranged by their sons, H. A. Siegel of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., and Roy Siegel of Chicago, Ill. Mr. Siegel is postmaster at Saylorsburg and they are both active in church and community activities in the area.

All of their friends and neighbors are invited to the open house.

Westwood Class

The Westwood Class of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church will meet on Thursday night at 8 at the home of Miss Laura Fabel, 22 North Tenth St., Stroudsburg.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Seems as if yesterday were my day for hearing good stories and it was a struggle with my conscience whether to include them in the regular news story or save them for the column. Sort of compromised. Mr. Hamblin's unusual story I put in with his birthday, but the Siegel's I saved for the column.

It seems that Mr. and Mrs. John F. Siegel of Saylorsburg decided not to make much fuss over this fiftieth wedding anniversary but little did they know, friends in the community decided that a party was in order and a party they had—at the firehall and in conjunction with the Ladies Aid Society, though the word spread fast and practically everybody was there.

Meanwhile out in the mid-West, their two sons also thought that the occasion called for a party so they started writing letters to people they knew back home trying to line up a surprise party for their parents. The only trouble was that since Mr. Siegel is postmaster all those letters coming through from Grosse Pointe, Mich. and Chicago, Ill., in familiar handwriting set him to thinking. He didn't say anything to anybody but he couldn't help wondering and sort of worrying about what was up.

Consequently they were greatly relieved to hear directly from their sons about the open house planned for next Saturday afternoon. So for two people who weren't going to make a fuss, there's been considerable to-do about the whole thing.

And another moral of the story might be never try to fool a postmaster.

Listen To Bobby Westbrook on the Party Line over WFO every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 10:05 a.m.

It was during that year that one of the strangest incidents happened. It was at a banquet in Philadelphia with the Philadelphia superintendent of schools as speaker. He was speaking of the old school house he had purchased in Swiftwater—and Mr. Hamblin sat up and took notice.

That was where he went the first seven terms of his schooling. A term in those days was four months, later raised to five. The speaker continued. In remodeling the schoolhouse, they had come across a nail-hole and down in the nail-hole were two little slips of paper, and tightly rolled, and each bearing the name of a boy and the date, 80 years before. One of those names was Mahlon Henry, and the other was the name of the boy who sat with him—William J. Hamblin. It was with mutual surprise that the speaker and Hamblin were thus brought together.

That was but one of the stories which went the rounds at the open house as Hamblin talked with each guest who came bearing congratulations.

Another concerned the plays they used to have at the churches in Swiftwater with Billy Hamblin appearing in them all. As a matter of fact he went to both churches, one which held services in the morning and the other in the afternoon.

He recalls the spelling bees, too, and that nobody could spell him down. Even today, he's a pretty hard man to catch out in spelling, he admitted.

Stories of the trip from Stroudsburg to Philadelphia by trolley, of political campaigns long past and the ones just over, from an inexhaustible supply, Hamblin kept them coming with enough left over for quite a few birthdays yet to come.

Blakeslee WSCS Meets At Hawk Home

Blakeslee — The Women's Society of the Blakeslee Methodist Church met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Peter Hawk. Mrs. Dorothea Blakeslee led the devotion and the president, Mrs. Allen Waltz, conducted the business session.

Shingles for the Community House have been purchased, it was announced, and as soon as the weather is favorable they will be laid. A check for $25 was received from Mrs. Hazelle MacPherson of Hicksville in appreciation of the assistance the society and friends had given to the Waltz family following the tragic death of Walter Waltz.

The society decided to try a "talents" project for six months with each member starting with $1 and reporting at the business meeting in July how much their "talent" had grown.

After the business meeting, secret pal gifts were exchanged and new names were selected. Mrs. Hawk was assisted by her daughters, Ruth, Shirley and Anna Hawk, of Pocono Pines, in serving refreshments in the Valentine motif.

Those present were Mrs. Dorothea Blakeslee, Mrs. Elsie Blakeslee, Mrs. Allen Waltz, Mrs. Robert Keiper, Mrs. William Wick, Mrs. Daniel Starnier, Mrs. Charles Serfoss, Mrs. Clayton Eckley, Mrs. Paul Blakeslee, and Mrs. Grace Bush.

The society will quilt Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Allen Waltz.

Wesleyan Guild

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church will meet tonight at 8. The missionary program will be on India.

Good Deeds Are Easy But Camping Out Hard For Scouts

AP Newsfeatures Berlin—American Boy and Girl Scouts in this city 100 miles behind the Iron Curtain sometimes earn their merit badges in unique ways.

To put in the required 50 days outdoors to win the camping badge for example, they may have to do their camping in their own backyards.

There aren't too many places for outings in the Soviet surrounded city and special permission is needed for camping and burning fires in the few woodlands available.

Such restrictions, however, haven't prevented 14-year-old Larry Hall of Fairmount, W. Va., a patrol leader, from earning 17 merit badges in only one year of scouting.

He holds the most among the 24 scouts in Troop 46 in Berlin. King Douglas, 13, of Greenville, Md., also a patrol leader, is second with 12 merit badges.

The Boy Scout troop, along with Girl Scout Troop 7 and two Brownie troops for smaller girls, are made up of the children of Army officers, State Department workers and other families in Berlin's American community.

They are believed to be the only American Scout units east of the Iron Curtain. The Boy Scout troop got started in the Berlin blockade days of 1948 with only a handful of

Miss Barney Is Bride Of D. M. Walters

Saylorsburg — Miss Jeralie Ellen Barney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Barney of Saylorsburg RD 1, was married to David Malcolm Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S. Walters, 1335 Linden St., Bethlehem, in the First Presbyterian Church, Bethlehem.

Rev. Elam Davies performed the ceremony. Stoddard Smith was organist and Richard B. Walters, vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Joseph Stanziani of Philadelphia was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles B. Sweigard Jr. of Philadelphia and Mrs. Edwin H. Danneberger of Wilmington, Del.

L. Douglas Walters was his brother's best man. The ushers included Lt. Robert Walters of Bethlehem, serving with the US Navy and stationed at Norfolk, Va., and Donald Walters, Riverdale, Pa., both brothers of the bridegroom and Kent Barney, of Saylorsburg, brother of the bride, and Harry Stotz of Vainalla, N. Y.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Ross Common Manor. Mr. and Mrs. Walters will make their home at 218 West Third St., Bethlehem.

The bride is a graduate of Liberty High School, Bethlehem, where they lived before moving to Saylorsburg. She was also graduated from Stephens College, Columbia, Mo. Mr. Walters is a senior at Lehigh University and was star halfback on Lehigh's football team.

Museum Rooms Open

Marriage Counselling Phase Of Planned Parenthood To Be Featured In Campaign

The Monroe Co. Planned Parenthood Association is conducting its annual educational and fund-raising campaign during the week of Feb. 7.

One feature of the week's activities will be a radio interview on marriage counselling on Thursday, Feb. 10 at 10:45 on WFO. Mrs. John Kingsley, president of the county Planned Parenthood Board, will interview Dr. Mary Hunsiker, who has been specially trained in this work. Marriage counselling is planned to help married couples work out difficult emotional or physical problems.

Another type of marriage counselling, or rather education for marriage, which Dr. Hunsiker considers very important is a counselling session for engaged couples. Appointments for marriage counselling can be made by telephoning 683-J during the regular clinic hours, 12:30 to 2:00 on any Wednesday. Charges for marriage counselling will be on the same basis as the regular child-spacing service for married women. All fees are adjusted to ability to pay, and no one is ever turned away for being unable to pay.

The following board members are in charge of the educational and fund-raising campaign: Mrs. Neal Coberly, Mrs. Philip Easton, Mrs. Harold Flagler, Mrs. Robert Hellman, Mrs. Russell Imbri Jr., and Mrs. David Mazer. Other Monroe County Planned Parenthood board members include: Mrs. Huntington Carter, Mrs. Russell Eshback, Mrs. Jesse Flory, Mrs. A. Greenwald Gearhart, Mrs. Earl Groner, Mrs. Arthur Grotz, Mrs. Edward Jenkins, Dr. Mary Hunsiker, Mrs. R. Frederick Jones, Dr. Charlotte Jordan, Mrs. John Kinsley, Thomas Knepp, Miss Elizabeth Martin, Mrs. Byrd McDowell, Mrs. Olaf Pedersen, Mrs. Merlin Rutt, Mrs. Roger Stinson, Mrs. Earl Willhoite, Rev. ## Students Generate Young Ideas For Junior Fashions

By Dorothy Roe Associated Press Women's Editor

St. Louis, Mo.—Here in St. Louis young people turn out the styles that young America wears.

The success of St. Louis as a major junior fashion center of the country is due to the fact that manufacturers here have an ever-niche.

When you visit the showrooms of fashion firms here, there is a sort of campus atmosphere everywhere you go. Bright young things who look as if they should be ready source of young design talent in the School of Design at Washington University, as well as other Missouri colleges such as Stephens and Lindenwood, well known for their fashion design courses.

Students work closely with industry at Washington University, where most of the faculty in the fashion classes came to the school from local dress manufacturing firms, armed with practical experience. And each year a number of the brightest students in the graduating class go direct to jobs in the fashion business.

In the university, students who are aiming for careers in fashion get training in pattern drafting, tailoring, dress design, millinery and shoe design. Each year their best work is shown in a Fashion Roundup staged by the St. Louis Creators, and many of the country's top junior fads and fashions have been born in this student style show.

Both manufacturers and students think this teamwork is a fine idea. The former have the benefit of the young viewpoint in turning out fashions aimed at the youthful market. And the latter have the comfortable assurance that here is one place where youthful talent gains quick recog-

Woman's Board Members Pass 13,000 Service Hours Earning Badges In Berlin

Members of the executive board of the Stroudsburg Woman's Club have given a minimum of 13,220 hours of volunteer services in civic activities. Mrs. Walter H. Caulfield, president, announced yesterday at the meeting of the board at the Stroud Community House.

This was even an under-estimate, she said, in listing the activities in which members participate. The club itself is involved in many of these civic events, the reports indicated as the Heart Fund, the Polio March of Dimes, the Well-Baby Clinic, the prizes for homemaking and for United Nations studies were all considered.

The Heart Fund Campaign, being sponsored by the Woman's Club, was reported by the chairman, Mrs. Samuel O. Wells III. She announced that 150 plastic hearts had been given to volunteers, 250 window signs and 50 car cards had been distributed.

She reported that she had had an excellent response in the rural areas as well and announced a meeting of all workers to be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 at the Stroud Community House. Brian O'Connell, state representative, will be here to talk and give future instructions. She also asked members of the Woman's Club to visit WFO between 2 and 4 p. m. any afternoon this week to make tape recordings.

Mrs. Parke W. Kunkle, chairman of welfare, announced that nine Well Babies had attended the Stroudsburg Clinic and 15 babies the East Stroudsburg Clinic during January.

The board voted to contribute $5 to the March of Dimes. They also voted to give $25 for prizes for the two high ranking students in the United Nations Contest, of which Mrs. LeRoy J. Koehler is chairman, and $5 for the prize-winning dress in the county Home Economics exhibit, arranged by Miss Miriam Lark.

Mrs. Alphonse Meyers, safety chairman, reported on the talk given by Prof. Amos Neyhart, pioneer in driver training, at Penn State University, given at the meeting of the Junior Woman's Club last week.

Four new members were voted into the club: Mrs. Horace G. Butler, Mrs. Neil Martin, Mrs. Edmund Strickland and Mrs. Francis Shinn.

Mrs. Donald A. Gilpin announced the program for next Monday in place of Mrs. Claude Leister who was not present. It will feature a talk by Phyllis Hamilton Smyser, on "The Life of a Diplomat's Wife." Mrs. Smyser lived with her husband in Prague, Paris, Madrid and Bangkok during the 20 years he was a member of the U. S. Diplomatic Corps.

Mrs. Eli R. Travis, chairman of Ways and Means, announced that to date the receipts from the benefit card party were $47.

Present for the meeting were: Mrs. Walter H. Caulfield, Mrs. Harold T. Rinker, Mrs. Parke Kunkle, Mrs. LeRoy J. Koehler, Mrs. William R. Toewe, Mrs. Alphonse J. Meyers, Mrs. W. Dohy Palmer, Miss Lulu Shafer, Mrs. Eli R. Travis, Mrs. Roy Peterson, Mrs. David Kohn, Mrs. Donald Gilpin, Mrs. Samuel O. Wells, Mrs. Irving B. Kiffin, Mrs. John L. Runney, Mrs. George F. Ockershausen, Mrs. James Coleman.

Miss Anthony Engaged To John Manson

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anthony of 290 Washington St., East Stroudsburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Josephine Lorraine, to John J. Manson, son of Mrs. Agnes Manson of 192 Spring Street, East Stroudsburg.

Miss Anthony is a graduate of East Stroudsburg High School and is employed at the Security Trust Company in Stroudsburg. Mr. Manson is also a graduate of East Stroudsburg High School and is employed at the Hughes Printing Co., East Stroudsburg. They have not announced the date for their wedding.

Cancer Dressings

The members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary have been asked to meet on Wednesday night at 7:30 at the Cancer headquarters, Sarah Street to make cancer dressings. As many members as possible are asked to help with the project.

I suppose it's only to be expected that the first day back at work after nine weeks away will be a pretty trying one. But it was a pretty exciting one too—there's so much to see and so many people to chat with about the latest news. One of the nicest things about Wyckoff's is that if you stand in our center aisle long enough you're certain to see everyone—because everyone comes to Wyckoff's.

Ours is a romantic store right now. It is brimming over with Valentines and with the laces, sequins, flowers and music that are the stuff of which Valentine dreams are made. Even our housewares department is in a heart—moor, with Mary Hitesman's contribution to the season being Mirro's "aluminum" molds for pretty salads and desserts, or simply to hang on the kitchen wall as decoration. These heart shaped molds—four small, one large—come boxed at $2.19, and have the soft, mellow tone that comes from plating aluminum with copper. There are bigger molds of the same in more intricate shapes at $5.95 the set—but right now it's the hearts that tug at our purse strings.

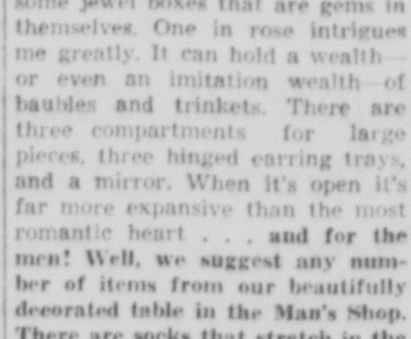

In our gift department we have some 5000 bunches of flowers—mostly velvet violets in two shades of purple or three shades of yellow. I prefer my violets violet—don't you? Whatever the color, however, these are just the right floral note for a romantic February 14th. They'd make delightful favors on a party table, they'd be cute beau-catchers on a package, and they're always attractive on a coat or blouse. The price? Only 25 cents a bunch. Which makes me think once again of our housewares department. Over there, we have three piece hostess sets—plate, cup and saucer—with violet design at only $10. These would be a prized Valentine gift for the young homemaker who still has stars in her eyes and her heart on her sleeve. Also now, although not Valentine-ish, are the throws from Italy which sell in our gift department at $1.98 and can be used in countless ways on piano, table top, or sofa back. The designs are in rich colors—shades of blue, red, et cetera, and the size is an ample 38 by 19 inches. These are very practical, lovely home accessories for any old day of any old year. Heart hankies from our accessories department are Valentine splendor that goes right to the head, goodness now. There are several styles, some particularly lovely for little girls, and the prices are widely ranged to suit every gift budget—25c, 39c, 59c, $1 or $1.50 will buy a gift any woman will prize. . . . and for $10 we have some jewel boxes that are gems in themselves. One in rose intrigues me greatly. It can hold a wealth—or even an imitation wealth—of baubles and trinkets. There are three compartments for large pieces, three hinged earring trays, and a mirror. When it's open it's far more expansive than the most romantic heart. . . . and for the men! Well, we suggest any number of items from our beautifully decorated table in the Man's Shop. There are socks that stretch in the way a careless lover may sometime stretch the truth. There are belts, and tie clips, and cuff links, and best of all a turkey red shirt in Eagle sheen gabardine, as ardently bright as you'd ever wish. What's more, this same shirt can be ordered in 16 other colors. The price is $8.95 and a little card says it's Unisee treated against stains. Just between us, on that shade of red lipstick would never show!

There will be refreshments and prizes.

A Valentine party will follow the business meeting.

RILEY

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

STROUDSBURG High School's basketball squad reaches a milestone tonight—whether or not it realizes the fact, this scribe can't remember when a basketball team of Mountaineers was able to sport a second half Lehigh Valley League record of two victories and no defeats. I also find it difficult to remember when a Stroudsburg cage machine last won eight games in one campaign. So, Coach John Kupiec and company will set some sort of a modern mark each time they come home a winner for the balance of the season.

But if Stroudsburg is going to continue its winning ways against Lehigh Valley opposition, it must take stock of itself and do the job before squaring off against a good Slatington club tonight. The Mountaineers will have the good fortune to meet the Slaters on the W. Main St. court but otherwise the home team isn't any better of than the visiting Slatington contingent—that is unless it hands together rapidly.

Stroudsburg must refine that solid teamwork that marked the 61-60 nod over Cataqua, but which was missing when the Mountaineers came up with a 57-54 verdict over Whitehall, one of the weakest quintets in the Lehigh Valley circuit this season. For the first time in recent years residents of Stroudsburg are behind the Mountaineers and each is hopeful that the W. Main St. quintet can go on to more and greater triumphs.

But to continue its winning habit the Mountaineers must stop and think and chart a future course. Each player on the squad must realize the fact that it doesn't matter who scores the points, just so they're scored. As pointed out here recently, Kupiec believes that if the "Big Three," Dave Nevil, Doug Shook and Dick Little, score 45 points, his club will be tough. The trio tallied only 37 points against Whitehall missing the magic number for one of the few times this year.

The Stroudsburg guards, usually on the low side, came up with more than their usual number of points to save the day against the Zephyrs. Now is the time for the Mountaineers to unite firmer than ever before. They must put forth every effort tonight, as a victory over Slatington would be one of the greatest ever registered by the school. Slatington, the defending champion, finished the first half race as the third best team in the circuit. No matter how Stroudsburg fans look at the situation—the chips are down.

As mentioned within these confines on several occasions recently, the Stroudsburg basketball team is good—far better than the one that lost to Slatington during the first half of the campaign, 63-47. The Mountaineers were finding the going tough when they dropped the first contest to the Slaters, but now they are flying high. A victory tonight would enable the W. Main St. sharpshooters to tie their victory mark to four straight registered in the first four games of the season.

Stroudsburg is currently sporting a record of eight wins and six setbacks. The Mountaineers have been up and down and have been rocked hard a time or two. But it is this scribe's contention that the Stroudsburg basketball team had trouble because of only one reason—it forgot its fine teamwork. Individual play never made a player or a team.

It is my contention that Stroudsburg is the toughest team in the Lehigh Valley League when at work on its home court. Don't take my word for it, but ask coaches at Palmerston, Cataqua and even at Slatington. Slatington won both halves of the Lehigh Valley struggle last season, but was lucky to escape with a two-point win in its visit to the W. Main St. hardwood. Slatington will be armed with knowledge of last season's tussle, but not with the horses that made the 1953-1954 club tick. True, the Slaters have Merrill Eckhart and Maurice Schleicher, two fine performers, but not the same supporting cast that came within a couple games of the state title last March.

Kupiec and his kids have come too far to turn back now. The team has come to life. Everyone would be expert predicted it would die. You can't give up on youngsters like this. The team has a lot of weakness, but it has a fighting heart—which often times makes up for lack of ability. Stroudsburg slumped badly against Whitehall, but it could be a different story tonight—if teamwork is the keynote.

John Kupiec

Stroudsburg Battles Slatington Foe

STROUDSBURG High comes face to face with its biggest basketball game of the current campaign tonight when the Mountaineers do battle with Slatington on the W. Main St. court. Both teams are currently tied for first place with Palmerston in the Lehigh Valley League.

Slatington, Stroudsburg and Palmerston are all featuring second half marks of two victories and no defeats at the present time.

The Mountaineers, with victories over Cataqua and Whitehall is this half, are shooting for one of their most successful campaigns in recent years.

If they are to continue in a first place tie with Palmerston tonight, the charges of Coach John Kupiec must sidetrack Slatington. Junior varsity action is set for 6:45 p. m. and the varsity tussle at 8:15 p. m.

Kupiec is expected to answer the starting whistle with Dave Nevil and Doug Shook at the forward spots and Dick Little at center. The two starting guards will be chosen from the foursome of Don Deibler, Francis "Sonny" Diebler, Dick Hintze and Tom Metzgar. Deibler missed practice yesterday because of a cold. Slatington finished the first half in third place and will feature two of the circuit's outstanding players in Merrill Eckhart and Maurice Schleicher. Eckhart scored 31 points against Lehigh last Friday and Schleicher came up with 19 counters in the same contest.

The Slaters have defeated Emmaus and Lehigh with ease in the second half race. Last season Slatington, Lehigh Valley League title holder, won by two points on the Stroudsburg court.

Stroudsburg is expected to depend on the height of Shook, Little and Nevil to stop Eckhart and Schleicher. The Mountaineers will have to use their rebounding ability to keep control of the boards, while the guard section is expected to add enough speed to enable Stroudsburg to keep pace with the invading power-house.

The Mountaineers have registered eight victories and have suffered six defeats against all opposition this season and each victory without a setback in the second half will set a modern record for the W. Main St. cagers.

Stroudsburg plays its fourth straight home game of the season on Friday night when a highly regarded Northampton contingent, winner over Stroudsburg in the first half, rolls into town. Slatington scored a 63-47 victory over Stroudsburg in the first half wars.

Other Lehigh Valley League games tonight send Palmerston against Whitehall, Cataqua against Emmaus and Lehigh against Northampton. On Friday Whitehall will invade Cataqua, Palmerston will play at Slatington and Lehigh will battle Emmaus.

The Mountaineers went through a routine practice session yesterday and all were in good shape except Diebler.

Gray's Five Falls Before Lake Harmony

TANNERSVILLE — Lake Harmony remained one step ahead of the Stroudsburg Poconos in the Pocono Mountains Basketball League last night by scoring a thrilling 103-94 verdict over Gray's Chevrolet, here on the Pocono High School court.

Lake Harmony was hard pressed to refrain its number one rating in the standings and had to depend on a second half advantage to turn the tide of battle.

Ray Steele, playing his final game before reporting to spring training with the Kansas City A's, paced a second half rally that almost enabled the home team to pull the game out of the fire.

Lake Harmony led by only three points with one and one-half minutes remaining to be played, 95-90, but the visiting crew rallied right before the final whistle to win by nine points.

Steele's brilliant display of scoring enabled Gray's Chevrolet to vault into a 25-15 lead at the end of the first period. The home team continued to lead at halftime, 45-38, although outscored in the second quarter, 33-20.

Lake Harmony rolled to victory with a 25-25 advantage in the third quarter and a 26-24 nod in the last period.

Gray's Chevrolet actually had the better of the field goal totals, 41-38, but the host club could make good on only 12 of 26 foul shots. Meanwhile Lake Harmony rang the bell on 27 of 37 charity tosses. Steele was the top scorer in the game with 33 points, while Ronnie Esarung paced Lake Harmony to victory with 30 counters.

Bangor Girls Play Today

BANGOR — Bangor High's entry in the East Penn Girls' Basketball League will oppose Bethlehem Catholic High's ladies in a non-circuit outing today, on the Bethlehem school's court.

The game is scheduled to get underway at 4 p. m.

Bethlehem Catholic took the measure of Bangor in an earlier meeting, here on the Bangor court. The Slaters are expected to answer the starting whistle today with virtually the same lineup that has opened encounters in the past.

Cincinnati Lists Assistant Coaches

CINCINNATI, Feb. 7 (AP)—George Blackburn, new head football coach at the University of Cincinnati, today went to Army and the University of Richmond for two new aides.

The University's board of directors approved the selection of Bill Shalowsky, former Cincinnati player who has been plebe coach at Army, and Charles Ellis, backfield coach at Richmond.

Dons Win Without Home Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7 (AP)—The University of San Francisco—now bidding for number one among the nation's college basketball teams—is an orphan of the sport.

The dashing Dons have no gym of their own for practice. They have no court of their own for games.

Coach Phil Woolpert's 15-man squad polishes up its phenomenal defense and deadly accurate shooting in the gym of nearby St. Ignace High School. At 3 p. m., the Dons have to clear out. The high school boys take over.

For "home" games, the squad comes down from its hilltop campus overlooking San Francisco Bay and plays either in Kezar Stadium Fieldhouse or in the cavernous Cow Palace, site of stock shows and rodeos.

The Dons are home-bred. They have to be. Dormitory facilities are so limited at the Jesuit College that most of the 2,550 students have to live at home in the bay area.

Pharmacy Wins Over Barrett, 73-57

POCONO PINES — Williams' Pharmacy retained its hold on third place in the Pocono Mountains Basketball League last night, but was forced to rally in the second half to upend a stubborn Barrett quintet, 73-57.

The game was played on the Tobyhanna Township High court. Barrett proved troublesome in the first half, but couldn't stand the pace set by the Pharmacy contingent in the third and fourth quarters.

Williams' crew, coached by Warren Madden, got off to a 19-12 lead at the end of the first round, but Barrett fought back to hold a 16-13 edge in the second quarter. The Pharmacy, playing the role of host, was on the long end of a 32-28 halftime count.

The Pharmacy quintet, paced by Fred Mobley, began pulling away early in the third stanza and went on to dominate play with an 18-11 bulge in the third round and a 23-18 advantage in the last quarter.

Williams' cagers enjoyed a 31-20 sway in field goals and converted 11 of 28 fouls. Barrett made good on 17 of 31 attempts from the foul lines.

Mobley led the Pharmacy in scoring with 19 counters, while Tom Carroll and Jim "Cocky" Wilson each registered 17.

Vejar Romps To Victory

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Feb. 7 (AP)—Chico Vejar, an ex-GI making his third start since he was seriously injured in a plane crash, romped to an easy victory over Joey Klein tonight at Eastern Parkway, winning a unanimous decision in 10 rounds. Vejar weighed 152, Klein 149.

The former Stamford, Conn., schoolboy flash who was discharged from the Army last fall raised lumps under both Klein's eyes after battering his body with left hooks in the early rounds.

Klein, 22, was wild and ineffective most of the time although he continued to crowd Vejar. He was in over his head against Chico, making his third "comeback" at the age of 23. At the end Klein bled from the nose and barely was able to squint through a slit of a right eye.

Vejar showed Klein every punch in the book. He jabbed accurately, scored with his hook and drove home long right hand leads. The favorite at 12 to 5, Vejar won going away, like a 10 to 1 shot.

Referee Jack Watson and Judge Leo Biernbaum scored it 9-1 and Judge Artie Schwartz 7-2-1, all for Vejar. The AP score card was 10-0 shutout.

Gromek Accepts Terms

DETROIT, Feb. 7 (AP)—Steve Gromek, veteran right-hander who had an 18-16 record last season, signed his 1955 contract with the Detroit Tigers today. He is the 28th of 45 Tigers to sign.

ESSTC Entertains Paterson Quintet

EAST STROUDSBURG State Teachers College will shoot for its second straight and fourth basketball victory of the current campaign tonight when the Warriors entertain Paterson State Teachers College on the Normal Hill court.

The two schools will present their junior varsity contingents in action at 7 p. m. and the varsities at approximately 8 p. m.

ESSTC is fresh from an 84-77 win over Kutztown and probably its best showing of the current campaign.

The Warriors, coached by Jerry Palaia, have won three and lost five games to date, while Paterson has an unofficial mark of eight wins and six setbacks.

ESSTC has won over Kutztown, Trenton and Cheyney, while finishing on the short end of the score twice against Millersville and once each against Wilkes College, University of Scranton and Palmyer.

Palaia, well pleased with the showing of his pupils against Kutztown, announced yesterday that he would stick with his usual starting lineup. This means that Ray Kaseman and Denny Sullivan will handle the forward duty, while Charley German, who first made his mark at Whitehall High, handles the center duties. George Heidenreich and Wilmont Smith will open in the guard spots.

Also ready for action tonight are Nick Gatto, who played well against Kutztown; Jack Burke, Lee Hill, Tom Spillane, Ray Busolari and Walt Bjorn.

Paterson is reportedly short on height, but long on speed. What the New Jersey squad lacks in altitude it makes up with fast breaks and brilliant ball handling.

Tonight's visiting squad will feature 11 players, seven freshmen, one sophomore, two juniors and only one senior.

Paterson will list Tom Craft, five feet, seven; Lou Cringle, six feet, one and Dick "Ritchie" Turf, five feet, seven, all freshmen, in the starting lineup. Jim Meisterich, six foot junior, and Jack Drury, five foot, eight sophomore, will round out the starting five.

The Paterson cagers own a 100-85 nod over powerful Montclair, and has also suffered a 95-90 licking at the hands of the same Montclair club.

ESSTC plays at Montclair on Friday.

Poconos Remain Threat In Pocono Mountains Basketball League By Crushing West End

STROUDSBURG'S PENNANT hungry Poconos remained in the thick of the championship race in the Pocono Mountains Basketball League last night by coasting to a 98-56 victory over West End. The game was played on the Stroudsburg High School court.

Henry "Hank" Stetler led the scoring parade with 23 points, but four of his mates crashed into double figures in the scoring column as the Poconos held the upper hand in all but the third quarter.

Stroudsburg stepped off to a 22-12 edge at the end of the first half and led 41-24 at the halfway mark. The host contingent, carrying the Twin City TV colors, had the better of the going in the second round by a 19-12 count.

West End rallied long enough to hold a 22-18 bulge in the third round, but the Poconos roared back with a 30-10 tabulation in the last quarter to make certain of victory.

The Poconos enjoyed a 48-21 advantage in field goals and made good on two of three foul shots. West End converted 14 of 21 charity tosses.

Henry "Hank" Stetler, the circuit's leading scorer, was held to only eight points, while Larry Foust and Doug Hawk led the losing attack with 20 counters each.

Grady Bolcar came up with 16 tallies for the Poconos, while Jim "Dunky" Smith registered 17. Dick James, 15, and Bill Weber 12. The Poconos play at Barrett tomorrow and meet Johnson's Diner at Tannersville on Thursday.

Hickman To Pilot Bushkill Baseball Club

BUSHKILL—Dick Hickman, a resident of Bushkill, last night was named manager of the Bushkill entry in the Pocono Mountains Baseball League during a reorganizational meeting of the club.

The meeting was held here at "Rick" DePue's Restaurant. DePue was reelected president of the organization and Dick Miller was named secretary-treasurer.

Miller recently resigned as manager. The veteran infielder-pitcher doesn't plan to play baseball next summer.

Plans for a fund raising dance were also completed at last night's gathering. The dance will be held at Shaffer's Inn on Friday, February 25. All proceeds will go directly to the ball club.

Pirates Sign Two Hurlers

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 7 (AP)—Right-handed pitchers Max Surkont and Jake Thies today returned their signed 1955 contracts to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Surkont won nine and lost 18 for the Pirates last season. Thies won three and lost nine in 1954.

Two Sox Join Fold

CHICAGO, Feb. 7 (AP)—Third baseman Stan Jok and outfielder Ed White, each 28, returned signed 1955 contracts to the Chicago White Sox today, bringing the number of players in the fold to 39 and leaving only Minnie Minoos unsigned.

That's all added up to five winning World Series checks for Silvera plus the second place money

Penn Takes Measure Of Lehigh, 22-11

CANADESSIS — Penn rolled to its second straight victory in the Barrett Midget Basketball League last night by doubling the score against Lehigh, 22-11, here on the Barrett High Court.

Penn, held to a 9-9 deadlock in the first half, demonstrated its power in the second half and particularly in the final quarter when the Quakers constructed a 6-0 advantage.

The ultimate winner held a slim 7-5 edge at the end of the first stanza, but was forced to settle for a 9-9 tie at halftime. Lehigh had the better of the going in the second quarter, 4-2.

Penn began its victory drive with a 7-2 edge in the third stanza and made certain of the win by blanketing Lehigh in the final round.

Jimmy Bender and Billy Manos led the winning attack with 10 and seven points respectively, while Carl O'Merle paced Lehigh with five counters.

ESSTC Cagers Improve Stock In Conference

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 7.—Millersville continued its winning streak in league competition and won number 22 last week to remain in the lead of the Pennsylvania State Teachers Colleges Basketball Conference. The Marauders are headed for their second perfect league season.

Dick Majernik and his California Vulcan teammates failed to stop the Millersville tide.

Indiana figured heavily in the standings until Jack Crossan, the league's high scorer, was injured in the Slippery Rock upset over Indiana. Only Clarion and West Chester now have an outside chance of catching up with Millersville.

In Saturday's games California moved out Shippensburg, 79-78; Edinboro nipped the Slippery Rock streak, 72-67, and East Stroudsburg took the decision from Kutztown, 87-77.

The standings:

	W.	L.	PTS.
Millersville	22	0	236
Clarion	1	1	212
California	1	1	187
West Chester	1	1	179
Indiana	1	1	179

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 2. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

No Evidence Of Payment By Red Official

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) said today he has searched the Senate Investigations Subcommittee files and found no mention of evidence—reported by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.)—that a Democratic senator knowingly accepted $300 from a Communist official.

McCarthy said in Milwaukee yesterday he believed Charles Tracy of Brooklyn, N.Y., had been dropped as a subcommittee staff investigator after the Democrats took over, because Tracy had "stumbled onto" evidence about the case. McCarthy said further today that a photographic copy of a bank draft covering the payment to the senator might be in the subcommittee's file, but he wasn't sure.

McClellan told a reporter today he had checked with Miss Rosemary Engel, a holdover McCarthy appointee in charge of the subcommittee's files, "and she says it is not in the files." He said she told him she knew nothing about such evidence.

McClellan said he then checked through the files himself, and found that Tracy had written a memorandum about a recent trip to the West Coast to investigate alleged activities there, but that the memorandum does not mention the case.

"It contains no reference to the check, or a draft, or a photostat of either, or of the case," McClellan said.

McCarthy so far has declined to name the senator he contends got the money from a West Coast official of the Communist party.

McClellan said he had never heard of the case before McCarthy mentioned it in a Milwaukee interview yesterday, but that he had requested and received Tracy's resignation in a shakeup of the subcommittee staff after taking over the chairmanship from McCarthy.

COP Senate Approves Six
Of Leader's Appointments

Behney, present secretary of the Liquor Control Board, was named to fill a vacancy. He is a Republican.

The officials replaced were Forest Frederick T. Gelder, Forest City, and David R. Perry, Camp Hill, member, Liquor Control Board; Chairman Leo G. Knoll, Scranton, Workmen's Compensation Board; Chairman Raymond A. Cox, Meadville, and Malcolm B. Petrkin, Wallingford, State Labor Relations Board.

Gelder and Perry checked out of their offices at noon, as ordered by the governor, leaving the state's liquor monopoly without a head for the remainder of the day. The others, except Conley, had threatened to contest their dismissal in the courts. They could not be reached for comment on latest developments. Conley, who has been ill, said he wanted more information before commenting.

Gov. Leader, in a message to the Assembly, "most earnestly" urged revision of the state's unemployment law. He recommended removal of the so-called "peril point" increasing maximum benefits from $30 to $35 weekly, an increase in the number of compensable weeks from 26 to 30 and an increase on a sliding scale of payroll taxes on employers for an average of 1.65 per cent.

The governor emphasized especially the need to remove the "peril point" formula from the law. Under it benefits are automatically reduced and payroll taxes are increased when the fund reaches a certain level.

"It is my belief that the proposed amendments will give Pennsylvania a revised system of unemployment compensation which will compare favorably with that of any progressive state," Leader said in his message.

The governor's proposed amendments were given prompt committee approval, reported to the House and placed in position for a vote on Wednesday.

The Senate received from the House a package of bills passed there last week renewing some 400 million dollars in temporary taxes. They were referred to the Senate Finance Committee where Republicans said they would stay until the governor submits the state's budget for the 1955-57 biennium.

Leader asked for prompt passage of the tax bills. The GOP in the House opposed them on the basis of timing. They said there was no hurry in renewing them since they continue in effect until May 31, under present law. Senate Republicans agreed.

Boy Friend
Quizzed In Girl's Death

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—A married classmate was questioned today in the sadistic murder of coed Anne Yarrow, slain in a Bohemian-type refuge she borrowed against the world.

He is Ernest Jackson, a tall, 30-year-old Negro. Police described him as a boy friend from whom the 23-year-old white coed hid out after a split-up, as she sought to withdraw to solitude.

However, detectives said Miss Yarrow summoned Jackson to the all but unfurnished Greenwich Village area flat last Tuesday to remove a dead cat, thus surrendering the secrecy of her hideout.

Jackson, twice married and the father of a child, was a classmate of Miss Yarrow at a New York University postgraduate workshop on human relations.

"We'll go on for hours," said Deputy Inspector Joseph McLaughlin of Jackson's questioning.

Miss Yarrow, slain Sunday, was a brilliant, idealistic girl who reportedly brooded about men. She was a student of psychology and human relations.

An autopsy revealed that Miss Yarrow—a devout member of the violence-shunning Quaker faith—was mutilated by 37 stab wounds. She also was strangled and sexually abused.

The medical examiner's office went to the unusual length of terming her murder "very vicious." Cops called it one of the most brutal in their memory.

Jackson and his second wife, Ruby, a Negro, with whom he lived, first were questioned yesterday. He went under renewed interrogation today.

Some 50 other persons were questioned in the case.

Miss Yarrow, a plain, plump girl with no taste for style, had been stripped of all clothing except a sweater which was bunched about her peck.

The body was discovered yesterday on a mattress in an underfurnished sixth-story walkup Miss Yarrow had borrowed. It is on the edge of Greenwich Village at 60 E. 4th St.

There was no bed in the room, only a telephone. The mattress was on the floor.

In a red-ceilinged, blue-walled living room of the three-room, $29-a-month flat was a record player, a desk, a chair and five water colors.

"There were always a lot of Bohemian types coming and going from the apartment," said a neighbor, Joseph Fausta.

A friend of the slain girl, Herta Payson, a 26-year-old secretary, loaned Miss Yarrow the apartment when the coed wanted solitude after splitting up with a boy friend.

Miss Payson returned yesterday from a 10-day visit to her parents in South Carolina.

The secretary said she found the latch smashed and the front door all but ripped from its hinges. Inside, she came upon Miss Yarrow's body.

Miss Yarrow's mother, Ena, 45, recently remarried, said she expected her daughter at her home in Long Island City yesterday for dinner.

"My daughter, she was an idealist," sobbed the mother. "I don't know why they are always the ones who get killed."

The mother divorced Anne's father in 1941 and recently married a ship captain, Alex Kaelpe. The girl lived with the mother and stepfather in Queens until she recently left to room with two girls in Brooklyn. One of the roommates was white, the other Negro.

Anne's father, Don Yarrow, is a free-lance photographer living in Ventura, Calif. He said the girl tried to reach him long distance shortly before her death.

Yarrow was out but his present wife was able to hear Anne's conversation with the long distance operator.

"My wife said her tone of voice was urgent and serious," Yarrow declared.

Miss Yarrow was a 1953 honor graduate of Guilford College, a Quaker institution near Greensboro, N.C.

An Ordinance No. 450

AN ORDINANCE regulating and requiring the licensing of junk dealers in the Borough of East Stroudsburg, and prescribing penalties for violation.

It is ordained and enacted by the Council of the Borough of East Stroudsburg in Council assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same, that:

Section 1. The word "junk" as used in this ordinance, shall mean any discarded material or article such as junk, old gasoline and oil, and none shall be permitted to remain upon the premises.

Section 2. The manner of storage and arrangement of junk, and the drainage facilities of the premises shall be such as to prevent the accumulation of stagnant water upon the premises, and to facilitate access to the premises.

Section 3. Such premises shall not be open for business nor shall any work be done on the premises, or the storage, processing and transporting or removal of junk, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, or on any other day of the week, except at 10 A. M. or after six o'clock P. M.

Section 4. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $100.00 and costs of prosecution, and in default of payment of such fine and costs, imprisonment for not more than five (5) days. ## An Ordinance No. 451

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting owners, custodians and keepers of license dogs from allowing such dogs to run at large; providing for the seizure and impounding of such dogs when larger penalties are incurred by reason of such detention of dogs, and prescribing penalties for violation.

Be it ordained and enacted by the Council of the Borough of East Stroudsburg in Council assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same, that:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for the owner, custodian or keeper of any dog, bearing the current license tag, to allow such dog to run at large at any time, other than any of the streets, alleys or public grounds in the Borough of East Stroudsburg, or upon the property of another than the owner, custodian or keeper of such dog, unless secured by a leash, and under the immediate control of such owner, custodian or keeper.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of any police officer of the Borough of East Stroudsburg who witnesses any dog running at large, to seize such dog and to convey it to the place designated by the Council as a pound. Notice of such seizure shall be sent to the owner of such dog, in the manner prescribed by law, and such dog may be redeemed by the owner thereof within the time specified by law, upon payment of the charges incurred by reason of such detention, and the cost of care, as determined from time to time by the Borough Council.

Section 3. Any owner, custodian or keeper of any dog who shall violate any of the provisions of the first section of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five dollars ($5.00), and costs of prosecution, and in default of payment of such fine and costs, imprisonment for not more than five (5) days. PROVIDED: such person shall be liable in addition to any punishment required to be made under the second section of this ordinance.

Section 4. All Ordinances or resolutions or parts thereof, inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

Barrett YMCA Gives Review Of Activities

A SIX-MONTH review and evaluation of the Barrett Branch YMCA of Monroe County produced the following results for club groups and other programs:

Three clubs in the National YMCA program (Gra-Y, Hi-Y and Tri Hi-Y) enrolling 61 boys and girls; they had 44 sessions and an attendance of 668.

One special interest club (Kohanso Indian Group) with 12 boys of junior high school age having 32 sessions and an attendance of 267; they also played before 700 different persons in their impressive Indian ceremony.

Movie program with 10 sessions and 337 attending. Swim tests with 6 sessions and 79 attending; 32 special events and games with 355 participating.

Game room attendance of 2293. Individual interviews and counseling with 186 different persons. Twelve outside groups use the YMCA regularly with an attendance for the six-month period of 982. The total YMCA membership stands at 132 and there are 73 club memberships.

The Y program in the Barrett area seems to be filling a great need and is receiving fine support from parents and other residents, according to Carlton C. Chopp, director. It has been felt that the first six-month period has been extremely successful, he said, and the future holds promise of increased program in service to the youth and the community.

Special thanks is given to the following groups and individuals for assisting in developing the youth program: Barrett Community Club, Barrett Lions Club, Barrett Township School, Barrett Rotary Club, Charles Geisinger, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Conley, and Phil Shaller, Y assistant.

Egypt May Quit Pact

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 7 (P)—A government spokesman said today Egypt, defeated in a bitter fight to enforce Arab neutrality in Middle Eastern defense maneuverings, will pull out of the Arab League security pact the day Iraq and Turkey sign their mutual aid treaty.

Maj. Salah Salem, national guidance minister, told visiting Lebanese newsmen that immediately on withdrawing from this alignment Egypt would sign with other Arab states a new military treaty. He emphasized the new one would bind all parties not to enter foreign alliances with other countries, including Turkey.

There was no indication what commitments if any Cairo has received from other Arab governments for a new alignment, which apparently would exclude Iraq. When members of the eight-nation Arab League ended a 16-day conference here last night without persuading Iraq to call off her projected alliance with Turkey, some of the others seemed inclined to join up with Turkey.

Since Turkey is a NATO member Arabs allying themselves with that country would indirectly be forming ties with the West. Their apparent willingness to make such commitments is attributed to growing fears among them of possible Soviet aggression in the Middle East.

Larger Number Of Boy Scout Units Now Operating In County Than During 1953

NUMBER OF BOY SCOUT units in the rise in Monroe County, the annual report for 1954 showed this week.

The county started the year with a total of 19 units, including troops, cub packs and explorer posts.

At year's end there were 23 units. (To date the total has risen to 25).

Frederick M. Murch

F. M. Murch President Of Pledge Class

FREDERICK M. Murch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Murch, East Stroudsburg was recently elected president of his pledge class of Theta Chi Fraternity at Susquehanna University.

The Beta Omega chapter of Susquehanna is one of 116 chapters in the United States. Since establishment in 1856 at Norwich University, the Theta Chi has grown into one of the largest in the country.

Fred is also active as a member of the marching band, concert band, symphony orchestra, chapel choir, and the recently organized madrigal groups.

While attending school in East Stroudsburg, he played five years with the high school band.

President Plans Weekend Hunting Trip To Georgia

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (P)—The White House announced today that President Eisenhower has tentative plans to fly Thursday to Thomasville, Ga., for a weekend of quail shooting at the estate of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

Indications were the President will make the trip barring some unforeseen development in the international situation.

A flight to Thomasville would be within the limitation of the new travel policy announced by the White House about two weeks ago. The announcement was that for the next two or three months, presumably because of the Far East situation, Eisenhower would restrict his travel to trips that would take him no further than about two hours from Washington by plane.

Cherry Pie Queen Named

YORK, Pa., Feb. 7 (P)—A 16-year-old Cumberland County girl, Margaret Rolar, of Newville, reigns today as queen of the cherry pie bakers in Pennsylvania.

The teenager, who attends Joint Big Springs High School, competed against a total of ten other county winners in the annual statewide contest. Runnerup was Janet Cumstock, 17, of Union City, Erie County.

Miss Rolar will represent the state in Chicago Feb. 17 at the National Cherry Pie Baking Championships.

Jeddo-Highland 'blue' Old Co.'s COAL Lehigh Valley-Hazleton SILVER CREEK BURNING CITY COAL CO. PHONE 1234

All the units have leaders over 21 years old, and 17 have at least one assistant over 21.

There were nearly a third as many adults in Monroe County Scouting in 1954 as there were boys, the report disclosed.

A total 721 boys took part in cub, scout and explorer work. They were guided by the 208 adults registered in Monroe.

The 23 units showed that activities were dominated by scouts, with 355 enrolled. There were also 241 cubs and 125 explorers.

This was an advance over 1953, when a total of 600 boys were in scouting achievement during 1954.

Some 133 boys advanced at least one rank during the year; 85 scouts spent a week at Camp Weygand summer training session, compared with 44 a year previous; 35 people enrolled in scoutmaster and cub leader training courses; and 285 scouts spent at least one weekend at Camp Weygand during the off-season. Two explorer scouts took part in the 10-day Lucian B. Maxwell trek from the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

Oil Imports Under Attack

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (P)—Rep. Daniel J. Flood (D-Pa.) called on Congress and the President today to prove their concern for the economically-distressed hard coal regions by cutting back the imports of oil.

Flood urged the House Ways and Means Committee to write into the reciprocal trade agreements a provision that would limit residual oil imports for any quarter to five per cent of the domestic demand for such oil in the corresponding quarter of the preceding year.

Similar proposals have been made by representatives of other coal producing areas, with some suggesting a 10 per cent limitation and others leaving the figure for the committee to insert.

Flood said the use of cheap, residual oil in place of coal is worsening the unemployment situation in the coal regions, and added:

"I have on my desk a two-foot high stack of government reports of the remarkable headway other countries have made with their economy programs... with particular reference to the basic industries of the enumerated nations. 'I know that anthracite coal is a basic industry of the country and I also know that all government agencies put together cannot file such a favorable report for us...'"
